This class will read the Hippolytus of Euripides in the original Greek. The class will consist primarily of close reading of the texts and discussion of points arising from the readings.

Students will learn:

- Increased understanding and appreciation of Classical Greek tragedy, its poetry, language, and historical, cultural and performance contexts.
- Improved skills in Classical Greek grammar and translation.