GRS 381
F2021
Greek and Roman Religion
Instructor: Dr. Darrel Janzen
TWF 12.30-1.30 p.m.

Learning Outcomes:
• Familiarity with the main ideas and historical context that characterize Greek and Roman religion
• Knowledge of primary sources for Greek and Roman religion and of their cultural contexts
• Ability to appreciate how Greeks and Romans (polytheists, initiates in the mystery religions, early Christians) dealt with life’s mysteries and sought meaning from the divine
• Ability to analyze how beliefs and practices related to the divine and to life’s ultimate questions more broadly may influence our lives in the present day