Exploration of the literature of the Latin poet Vergil.

Learning Objectives

- improved Latin reading and linguistic skills
- knowledge of a particular epic poet and his writing, of the generic concerns and metre of the poetry and of the role of literature as a document of culture more broadly.
- improved writing and research skills (developed through essay assignment)
- improved oral communication skills (developed through class presentation)

Course Pre-/Co-requisites
LATI 202 or permission of the department