This course will examine the lives of women in the Greek and Roman worlds, drawing upon a range of textual and material evidence.

Students will learn about:
• current theoretical approaches to studying women in the ancient world
• ideologies of femininity in Greek and Roman culture
• the legal and social status of women in the Greek and Roman world
• representations of women in Greek and Roman literature and art
• present-day appropriations of