Call for Papers

Classical Association of the Canadian West (CACW) Annual Meeting

University of Victoria, February 19–20, 2027

The Classical Association of the Canadian West invites proposals for papers for its 2027 annual meeting, to be hosted by the Department of Greek and Roman Studies at the University of Victoria on February 19–20, 2027.

We welcome papers on any topic related to the ancient Mediterranean world, broadly construed, including Greek and Roman literature, history, archaeology, philosophy, material culture, reception, and the teaching of Classics and ancient languages. Proposals from undergraduate and graduate students, independent scholars, and faculty at all career stages are welcome.

The keynote address will be delivered by Professor Amy Pistone (Gonzaga University).

Proposals for individual papers of up to 20 minutes should include a title and an abstract of no more than 300 words (excluding bibliography). Please include your name, academic affiliation (if any), and career stage in the accompanying email.

Please send proposals as an attachment (.docx or .doc preferred) to cacwvictoria@gmail.com by November 30, 2026. All proposals will be acknowledged, and acceptances will be sent by December 4.

The conference will be held in person at the University of Victoria in Victoria, British Columbia. Questions may be directed to Gregory Rowe, Department of Greek and Roman Studies, University of Victoria, at cacwvictoria@gmail.com.

We look forward to welcoming you to Victoria in February 2027!
