

Classical Association of Vancouver Island

Thursday, 18 November, 2021

Zoom: Register Here

3.30 p.m.

Dr. Debby Sneed

Lecturer, Department of Classics,
California State University, Long Beach

Accessibility for Mobility Impaired People in Ancient Greece

Dr. Sneed received her PhD in Archaeology from UCLA with a dissertation titled “The Life Cycle of Disability in Ancient Greece”. She has published an article in Antiquity on access ramps in Greek sanctuaries, and has the article “Disability and Infanticide in Ancient Greece” forthcoming in Hesperia. She has projects on accessibility in archaeology and worked on the archaeological excavation at Methone.

5th century vase, Metropolitan Museum of Art

Classical Association of Vancouver Island is UVic’s organization for people interested in the Greek and Roman worlds. Everyone is welcome. To join CAVI and be on our mailing list, please contact: Dr. Ingrid Holmberg (Ingrid@uvic.ca) or (grsadmin@uvic.ca)