

University of Victoria

Lansdowne Lecture

The University of Victoria's Public Lecture Series features the words and work of distinguished men and women, across a vast array of academic and research endeavours. As host of this lecture series, UVic continues its mission of enriching the human mind and heart.

Prof. Francisco García Vicente

Professor, Actor, Theatre Director,
Set Designer, and Playwright. Murcia, Spain

*“El desdén, con el desdén,” de Agustín Moreto, o cómo
convertir un texto clásico
en musical (in Spanish)*

Additional lecture:

“La dama duende,” de Calderón de la Barca, y la represión de la mujer en el siglo XVII (in Spanish)

Thursday, 5 March, 2:30 p.m.

Clearihue Building, Room C111

Wednesday, 4 March, 9:00 a.m.

Senate Chambers, University Centre,
Room A180

Department of Hispanic and Italian Studies

Francisco García Vicente is a renowned Spanish theatre director, actor, and university professor. He has directed 74 plays, acted in 47, and adapted 25 Spanish Golden Age plays. He founded Cambalache Teatro in 1986 and the Fundación Portmán Teatro, which brings theatre and academic talks to small towns in Murcia Community, Spain. Cambalache has performed in Spain, Mexico, and the United States. He teaches at the ESAD and the Universidad de Murcia, Murcia, Spain, and has taught courses at universities in the United Kingdom and the United States. His academic endeavors focus on 17th-century Spanish drama.

Travel Green: UVic is accessible by many modes of sustainable transportation including Regional Transit, cycling, walking and taxi. Should you choose to drive, pay parking is in effect for a $2.50 evening rate.

Free and open to the public | Seating is limited | Visit our online events calendar at www.uvic.ca/events

Persons with a disability requiring accommodation for these lectures should call 250-721-7413 as far in advance as possible.

For more information on this lecture phone 250-721-7413.