Course description:

If you have completed Spanish 100A, or have the same knowledge background, Spanish 100B is the next step. You will continue learning essential vocabulary and further the basics of Spanish grammar. This course involves regular 50 minute-classes three times a week.

At the end of Spanish 100B, you will be able to write a short composition, and to read and understand basic Spanish using the past tense and the subjunctive, for example.

This course, along with Spanish 100A, is part of the backbone of Spanish grammar for subsequent learning of the language. After completion of Spanish 100B, you will be prepared to continue to second year level, Spanish 250A (or 249).

You will also be eligible for the Study Abroad Program in Cuenca, Ecuador in the subsequent Fall term.

Proposed evaluation:

Assessment may include quizzes, attendance/participation, midterm exam and final exam. Grade breakdown will vary from year to year.
