(iv) General Editor (Women's Suffrage and the Struggle for Democracy, UBC Press 2018-2020)

Women today empower our electorate and the democratic institutions of Canada. The story of women's struggles and victories in the pursuit of political equality is not just a matter of the past: it has the value of informing current debate about the health of democracy in our country. This series of short, insightful books presents vivid accounts of famous and unsung suffragists and overdue explanations of why some women were banned from the ballot box until the 1940s and 1960s. More than a celebration of women's achievements in the political realm, this series provides deeper understanding of Canadian society and politics, serving as a well-timed reminder never to take political rights for granted.

The seven volumes include Joan Sangster, One Hundred Years of Struggle: The History of Women and the Vote in Canada (2018); Sarah Carter, Ours By Every Law of Right and Justice (2019): Women and the Vote in the Prairie Provinces (2019); Lara Campbell, A Great Revolutionary Wave: Women and the Vote in British Columbia (2019); Tarah Brookfield, Our Voices Must be Heard: Women and the Vote in Ontario (2019); Denyse Baillargeon, To Be Equals in Our Own Country: Women and the Vote in Quebec (2018); Heidi MacDonald, We Shall Persist: Women and the Vote in the Atlantic Provinces (2020) Lianne Leddy, Working Tirelessly for Change: Indigenous Women and the Vote in Canada (2021)
