This workshop is made possible by a generous grant of the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada (SSHRC) and the support of various departments, faculties and centres at the University of Victoria (Centre for Global Studies, the European Union Centre of Excellence (co-funded by the European Commission), the Department of Economics and Department of Political Science, the Peter B. Gustavson School of Business, and the Faculty of Social Science).

PLEASE NOTE: This two-day workshop is preceded by a one-day ‘junior’ workshop (Thursday 23 February 2017) entitled “The Political, Economic, Legal and Historical Implications of the Multiple Crises in the EU. Location: Wild Rose Room, University Club, UVic. The main funds are provided by the CETD (through a SSHRC cluster grant). Twelve junior scholars, mostly Canadians, present their papers with a view to producing a Special Issue of the Review of European and Russian Affairs. The conditions for participation are that they are either graduate students or junior scholars (who have obtained their PhD obtained no more than five years ago) and responded to our Call for Papers. This event is open to the public. The attendees of the ‘senior’ workshop are very welcome to attend this ‘junior’ workshop.
