

European Union Centre for Excellence Lecture Series

“Scottish? British? European? - Attitudes towards the Referendum on Scottish Independence 2014”

Dr. Jan Eichorn
Chancellor's Fellow, University of Edinburgh

1:00-2:20pm, Monday 10 March 2014, MacLaurin D103

This seminar is co-hosted with Political Science - it is free and open to the public.

Dr Jan Eichhorn is a Chancellor's Fellow in Social Policy at the University of Edinburgh. His research focuses on political participation and culture and within this context. Jan is currently leading two projects assessing the attitudes of Scots on the 2014 referendum on Scottish independence. In addition to this work, Jan engages in research on differences in political culture across the European Union as well as research into subjective well-being in relation to unemployment in different national contexts. In addition to the university work, Jan is also co-director of the think tank d|part, has advised officials of the German, Scottish and UK government respectively and has provided commentary for print and broadcasting media.
