

Transatlantic Convergence? Multiculturalism & Immigrant Integration in Canada and Europe

FREE Public Seminar with Dr. Keith Banting
When: Thurs. Nov. 20th, 2014 6–7:30pm
Where: UVic's David Strong Building (DSB) Rm C103

*SPACE IS LIMITED
RSVP to CFGSRA@UVIC.CA

Keith Banting will look at how, at first glance, Canada and Europe seem to be diverging dramatically in their approach to immigrant integration. While support for a multicultural approach still seems strong in Canada, a powerful backlash pervades European debates. Beneath the political rhetoric, however, there are important elements of convergence in integration policies governments have put in place on the two sides of the Atlantic.

Dr. Banting is Queen's Research Chair in Public Policy and professor in the School of Policy Studies and the Dept. of Political Studies at Queen's University in Canada.

In addition to Dr. Banting's presentation, we are pleased to welcome 2 respondents who will lead us into a broader discussion:

Avigail Eisenberg (professor and chair of UVic's Political Science Dept.)

Jean McRae (executive director of the Inter-Cultural Association (ICA) of Greater Victoria)
