Remodelling 'Brazilianity'
Wednesday, 29 January, 2:30 p.m.
Clearihue Building, Room A316

Presented by the Latin American Studies Program

Renowned anthropologist, Doctor Francine Saillant, is the principal investigator of various SSHRCC and FQRSC research projects, and author of more than twenty books and eighty articles. In the 1990s she studied the black movement of Brazil, interviewing more than 150 leaders. At the heart of her work were these questions: How can we make sense of reparation practices after four centuries of slavery? Can we repair history?

Additional lecture: Pioneer Afro-Brazilian dancers, photographers, and actors have received national and international recognition. Saillant discusses the diversity of their artistic practices and their perspectives on Brazil's new black subjectivity.

Travel Green: UVic is accessible by many modes of sustainable transportation including Regional transit, cycling, walking and by taxi. Should you choose to drive, pay parking is in effect for a $2.25 evening rate.

Free and open to the public | Seating is limited | Visit our online events calendar at www.uvic.ca/events
