

PAAS 116 Beginner Chinese I: Part 1

Instructor: Ben Pin-Yun Wang

Email: benpywang@uvic.ca

Note: PAAS 116 is a 1.5-unit course offered in the spring term. If you would like a 3-unit option for introductory Chinese, please consider PAAS 118 offered in the fall term. If you have some background in Chinese and are not sure whether PAAS 116 would be the best fit for you, please contact the instructor.

Course description:

PAAS-116 is designed for students with no or little background of Mandarin Chinese. The course focuses on developing learners' four language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing through various topics that are related to students' everyday life, including greetings, introducing oneself and family, dates and time, hobbies, visiting friends, making appointments, learning Chinese as well as school life. Learners will first be familiarized with Pinyin, a Romanization system of transcribing Chinese characters, and the components of characters. The goal of Intensive Beginner Chinese I is to establish a solid foundation that prepares students to function in a culturally appropriate manner.
