

Language Assistant Position Academic Year 2026-27

The section of the French and Francophone Studies of the School of Languages, Linguistics & Cultures requests expressions of interest for a Language Assistant for the French Help Center for the 2026-27 academic year:

During regularly scheduled hours, the language assistant will be available to students to help with French language questions and problems. The goal is to help French students develop better learning strategies to become autonomous learners. The language assistant may also work in collaboration with instructors to organize and lead workshops that can be useful for current French students in helping them succeed in their studies.

The qualified candidate should be fluent in both oral and written French and demonstrate all or most of the following skills:

- Experience in teaching or tutoring; formal training in French grammar or linguistics is an asset;
- Good knowledge of the programs offered by the section of French and Francophone Studies;
- Commitment to valuing diversity and contributing to an inclusive and respectful working and learning environment;
- Ability to communicate effectively with individuals from diverse backgrounds and tailor communication style for different audiences;
- Ability to work collaboratively.

Please submit applications via e-mail to genevievearsenault@uvic.ca, including:

- a cover letter (please indicate your availability for the fall semester)
- a current curriculum vitae

Schedule:

- 90 minutes per week (flexible)
- No sessions on Reading Breaks
- Within the Fall and Spring semester dates
- Day of the week: flexible, to be determined
- Start date: as soon as possible
- End Date: April 7, 2027
- Total of approximately 25 hours for the period

Salary:

- $34.72/hour + 4% vacation pay

Location:

- Clearihue C253

The application deadline is October 2, 2026.