Course Content.

This 1.5-unit course does not have any prerequisites, i.e., no prior knowledge required. The general rule of thumb for studying is, that for each class, students should spend approximately 2 to 3 hours of study time for each hour that they spend in class, e.g., per winter session week, at least 6 to 9 hours of study time plus the 3 hours of scheduled class time: You will need to take as much active study time as needed to achieve mastery. Note: This course has a cross-listed graduate counterpart (LING 596), providing the benefit of diversity of educational levels and mentorship.
