Letter of Introduction

Please provide (75-150 words) outlining your Indigenous ancestry.

*As a helpful tip, think of how you would introduce yourself to an Elder.

Mandatory Declaration

The Transition Seminar for which you are applying is one part of a larger suite of programs designed to support Indigenous student success at the University of Victoria.

Information that you provide when applying to our program will be recorded in several ways. Personal information listed on this form will only be used for program administration.

If you are accepted into the Transition Seminar, we may ask you to provide further information through questionnaires or surveys about your experiences. This information will be used for research, reporting, and program evaluation purposes. Your participation in this seminar does not obligate you to provide further information for these purposes. When requesting this additional information, we will take special steps to obtain your informed consent in ways that protect your confidentiality.

I hereby declare that all information above is complete and true in every respect, that I will submit any documentation necessary to substantiate the information I have given, and that I consent to release this information for the purposes stated.
