Governing Migration and Integration in Europe’s System of Multi-level Governance

Conference: October 28th-29th, 2011
University Club, University of Victoria, B.C.

Organized by
Oliver Schmidtke and Randall Hansen

Supported by:
- Joint University of Toronto/University of Victoria EU Centre for Excellence
- Strategic Knowledge Cluster Canada-Europe Transatlantic Dialogue
PRELIMINARY SCHEDULE

Friday, October 28: UVic University Club, Wild Rose Room

9.00-9.30 Welcome and opening remarks
- Randall Hansen, University of Toronto and Oliver Schmidtke, University of Victoria

Part I: Conceptualizing the Management of Migration in Europe’s System of Multi-level Governance

9.30-10.20 – Chair: Randall Hansen
- Ricard Zapata-Barrero, Universitat Pompeu Fabra, Barcelona: "Linking immigration policy and multi-level governance: conceptual framework, theoretical tensions, and potential approaches"

10.30-11.20 – Chair: Randall Hansen
- Virginie Guiraudon, National Center for Scientific Research CNRS Lille: “Bringing the “local” back in. How and why are subnational authorities involved in migration management?”

Part II: The European Union and the Supra-national Governance of Migration and Integration

11.30–12.20 – Chair: Oliver Schmidtke
- Marco Martiniello, Université de Liège: “Immigrant integration policies in the EU: between "Europeanization" and "localization”

12.30-1.30 Lunch

1.30-2.20 – Chair: Elke Winter
- Maarten Vink, Maastricht University: “Multilevel policy-making in European asylum governance: The informal exchange of country of origin information”

2.30-3.20 – Chair: Elke Winter
- Craig Smith, University of Toronto: “Pathological outcomes of European migration controls”
Part III: Bringing the local back in: the role of local levels of governance

3.30-4.20 – Chair: Dagmar Soennecken
- Rinus Penninx, University of Amsterdam: “Integration policies of European cities: a comparative study”

4.30-5.20 – Chair: Dagmar Soennecken
- Peter Scholten, Erasmus University Rotterdam: “Beyond national models of integration? Agenda dynamics and the multilevel governance of immigrant integration in the Netherlands.”

Dinner

Saturday October 29th: UVic University Club, Snowberry/Honeysuckle rooms

Part IV: Managing Immigration and Integration: Policy making and Politics

9.30-10.20 – Chair: Peter Scholten
- Davide Pero, University of Nottingham: “Integration from Below: Migrants’ Agency and the Politics of Governance”

10.30-11.20 – Chair: Oliver Schmidtke
- Tiziana Caponio, University of Turin: “The local policymaking for migration. From vertical to horizontal governance relations”

11.30-12.20 – Chair: Randall Hansen
- Janna Bray, University of Michigan: “Friend or Foe: Muslim Immigrants and Left Political Parties in Western Europe”

12.30-1.30 Lunch

1.30-2.20 – Chair: Elke Winter
- Oliver Schmidtke and Andrej Zaslove: The Politics of Immigration and Integration in Systems of Multi-level Governance: the case of Germany and Italy

2.30-3.20 – Chair: Dagmar Soennecken
- Uwe Hunger, University of Muenster: “Integration Policies in a Federal State: the Example of Germany”

3.30-4.00 Brainstorming session re publication