University of Victoria

Interdisciplinary Minor in Human Dimensions of Climate Change

First Term January – April 2020

Teaching Assistant Vacancy

(CUPE 4163 Specialist Instructional Laboratory Instructors & Academic Assistants)

POSITION AVAILABLE:

HDCC 300, Climate Change for Social Transformation - 1 Teaching Assistant, 25 hours total. Rate of Pay $26.08 per hour (effective July 1, 2019).

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course offers an opportunity for critical engagement with climate change as physical transformation, cultural object, and incitement to social transformation. This interdisciplinary course approaches climate change as complex phenomena that are co-constituted by social and natural worlds. The course will introduce students to a variety of lenses, knowledge networks, culturally constructed narratives and social justice issues that will help them understand why responding to climate change is challenging but also opens up opportunities for change.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Under the supervision of the course instructor, the Teaching Assistant will do the following:

- Become familiar with course concepts and materials as determined by instructors
- Mark assignments and exams according to the guidelines provided by instructors.
- Respond to student queries regarding evaluation of relevant assignments/exams.

This course is offered once a week, Wednesday’s 2:30-5:20.

How to Apply:

Complete the University of Victoria Application Form which can be downloaded here along with a CV and return it on/or before January 10, 2020, via email to: idpassis@uvic.ca

The University of Victoria is an equity employer and encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, and aboriginal peoples, people of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the University. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however in accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, Canadian and permanent residents will be given priority.