General Information for JD Students

This planning guide contains information for law students in the JD Program. If you are a JD/JID student, please refer to the JD/JID guide.

Law students can register for upper year courses in June 2021 using UVic’s Online tools. If you are eligible for second or third year law you will be automatically authorized to register in the 2021-22 Winter Session.

This guide, accompanied by the faculty timetables, schedules and websites (law and UVic) will give you detailed information about the course offerings, faculty regulations and important dates. Please review all information thoroughly prior to registration. The information is posted on the law registration webpage:

If you have questions, contact Yvonne Lawson, Manager, Academic Administration and Student Services at 250-721-8153 or lawmaass@uvic.ca.

Planning and Course Selection

This section lists some general information about the Faculty of Law program requirements. A full description of program requirements is available in the UVic Calendar. It is your responsibility to ensure that your program meets the University of Victoria’s and the Faculty of Law’s requirements, regulations, policies and procedures as stated in the University of Victoria Calendar and on the faculty’s website under Student and Academic Matters.

Unit Requirements for Each of Second and Third Year and Per Term

Full-time second and third year students must take a minimum of 14.5 units to a maximum of 16.5 units in each academic year. The academic year consists of the two terms that make up a student’s second or third year of law. The academic year will often consist of winter session courses (fall and spring terms), but this will vary for law co-op students and other students that choose to participate in summer term or stop out.

Full-time students may not register in fewer than 7.0 units or more than 8.5 units in a term. Part-time students must take a minimum of 3.0 units each term. Students hoping to depart from these registration requirements must request permission from the Associate Dean Academic and Student Relations (lawassoc@uvic.ca).

Students must take a minimum of 29.0 to a maximum of 33.0 upper-year units. Students may not return for additional academic terms if they have completed the required 29 upper year units, their compulsory courses, and their major paper.

Workload

Students should expect to be assigned 20 to 30 pages of reading per scheduled class hour for each course. You can expect a weekly total of 300 to 500 pages of reading each week. Some readings are quick and easily understood and some will require a slow and detailed reading. There may also be differences in teaching styles, course materials and content, assigned readings and evaluation methods among sections of each course. Details about workload expectations and online components of each course will be made available in course descriptions and/or on associated Brightspace sites.

Course Information and Counselling

The elective program in the upper years of the JD program requires informed course counselling and course selection. Students may draw on the following resources when making course selection decisions:

- Course timetables and examination schedules
- Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)
- Course Offering Patterns Guide
- The Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations
- The Associate Dean, Administration and Research
- The Manager, Academic Administration and Student Services
- Faculty members
Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)

For each course, a Preliminary Course Information Summary (PCIS) will be posted on the Faculty of Law website prior to registration: http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/pcisindex.php. PCIS are intended to help you with your course selection decisions. PCIS are to be used as a guideline only and are subject to change. Course descriptions will be posted on Brightspace and will be available to registered students at the start of term.

Course Prerequisites and Corequisites

Several upper-year law courses have required pre- or corequisite law courses. This should be considered during your course planning. Students must not register in courses for which they do not have the required pre- or corequisites. If you register in a course and are missing the required pre- or corequisites, you will not be permitted to remain in the course. The compulsory first-year law curriculum is considered to be a prerequisite for upper year courses. Review the Course Prerequisites and Corequisites table within this guide.

Examination Schedules

Examination schedules for fall 2021 and spring 2022 terms will be posted prior to registration beginning. It is the student’s responsibility to select courses that do not have conflicting exams and to pay due attention to the timing of take-home exams. Students who wish to avoid consecutive examinations must select their courses accordingly. Students with exams on consecutive days do not have grounds for deferrals on this basis.

Any travel arrangements for the end of term must be made to avoid conflict with final examinations. We highly advise that travel not be scheduled before the end of the exam period. Students may be required to write a deferred exam due to weather or other extenuating circumstances within the exam period; early travel scheduled at your own risk.

Cancellation or Rescheduling of Courses

Any course or program may be cancelled or rescheduled due to insufficient enrollment or other administrative circumstances. New course restrictions or prerequisites may also be imposed.

Enrollment Limitations

Courses and seminars have enrollment limitations that are listed under the heading “Cap” on the Course Schedules. The Faculty of Law reserves the right to place a cap on any course for pedagogical reasons or due to space limitations. Students should not expect course caps to be raised when courses are oversubscribed or because they are being offered online.

Compulsory Upper-Year Courses

In order to graduate, all students must successfully complete the Faculty’s major research paper requirement.

Students who commenced the JD program between September 2012 and September 2018 must also successfully complete the following compulsory upper-level courses:
• LAW 301 The Administrative Law Process,
• LAW 315 Business Associations, and
• LAW 360 Legal Ethics and Professionalism,
• or equivalent courses approved by the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations in advance of students enrolling in the course as a means of satisfying the Federation of Law Societies of Canada’s requirements.

Students who commenced the JD program in September 2019 or later must also successfully complete the compulsory upper-level courses:
• LAW 301 The Administrative Law Process and
• LAW 360 Legal Ethics and Professionalism,
• or equivalent courses approved by the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations in advance of students enrolling in the course, as a means of satisfying the Federation of Law Societies of Canada’s requirements.

Major Research Paper Requirement

During the upper years of the program, all students must fulfill the “major research paper” requirement. A major research paper is a legal research paper of no fewer than 7,500 words (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) on an approved subject which counts for at least 50% of the grade in a course and on which the student achieves a minimum grade of 65%. The major research paper requirement may be satisfied by:

1. writing a major research paper in a course (where permitted by the instructor) under the Faculty regulations governing such papers; OR
2. successfully completing LAW 388 Advanced Legal Research and Writing; OR
3. writing a directed major research paper in LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing.

Faculty regulations governing major research papers are posted on the faculty website under Student and Academic Matters. The course syllabus will typically indicate the number of major research papers, if any, the instructor will be willing to supervise in that course.

LAW 390 Major Research Paper in a Course

Students planning to write their major research paper in a course (other than LAW 399 or LAW 388), where such papers are permitted by the instructor, must register in the course in the usual way and must also complete the Consent to Supervise a Major Paper Within a Course form from the front office. The form requires the instructor’s signature. The completed and signed form must be submitted to the Assistant to the Associate Dean at the beginning of the term in which the paper will be written. Students unsure about whether a major research paper will be permitted in a particular course should consult with the instructor or the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations. Students are urged to consider this option for completing the major paper requirement, as opposed to enrolling in LAW 399.

LAW 390 Major Research Paper Registration

Students completing their major research paper within a course will also be registered in LAW 390 for the term in which they complete the paper. The LAW 390 registration is used for tracking and transcript purposes only and bears no unit value. (The student is already obtaining credit for the course in which the paper requirement is being fulfilled.) Front office staff will register the student in LAW 390 when the completed and signed consent form (see above) is submitted at the beginning of term. Students who have secured a supervisor for LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing should indicate on the consent form whether the paper is intended to fulfill the major research paper requirement. If this is the case, front office staff will register the student in both LAW 399 (for credit) and LAW 390 (for tracking). Not all LAW 399 papers meet the major paper requirement so this information must be included on the consent form. Students meeting the major research paper requirement by registering in LAW 388 ALRW will not be registered in LAW 390.

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing provides law students an opportunity to undertake substantial research and writing on a legal subject approved by a Faculty member who agrees to supervise the paper. The purpose of this policy is to provide guidance to students on proposals to write a LAW 399 research paper.

The calendar description for LAW 399 is as follows:

(Units: 1.0-4.0) During either of the second or third years of a student’s program, a student may undertake a substantial research and writing project on a legal subject approved by a member of the Faculty of Law who agrees to supervise the project. With the approval of the Dean or the Dean’s nominee: (1) a student may be awarded credit for two separate supervised research papers provided that the total credit does not exceed 4 units and each paper is started and completed in separate terms; (2) this course may be extended over two terms; or (3) this course is to be taken for 1 unit only.

The following guidelines apply to LAW 399 paper proposals:

- Students are generally expected to satisfy their LAW 390 Major Paper Requirement in a regular course offering rather than applying for LAW 399.
- An exception can be made where LAW 399 offers a student an opportunity to complete an original research and writing project, of publishable quality, where the subject matter of the paper is such that there is not a course-based opportunity to complete this work.
- Students are strongly advised to seek Faculty Member approval for a LAW 399 well in advance. Faculty Members may be approached by students about supervising a LAW 399 one to two terms in advance.
- Faculty Members are generally not available to supervise LAW 399 papers in their non-teaching term. In particular, there are limited opportunities to write LAW 399 papers in the summer term.
- Sessional and adjunct instructors do not normally supervise LAW 399 papers.
- The availability of LAW 399 is subject to the agreement of a supervising Faculty Member. Whether, and under what circumstances, a Faculty member agrees to supervise a LAW 399 is ultimately subject to the discretion of the supervising Faculty Member.
- Students should keep in mind that a LAW 399 paper is a major undertaking. A LAW 399 paper worth 1.5 units will be analogous to the time requirements of a 1.5 unit course.
Registration in LAW 399

- Students cannot register themselves for LAW 399; this will be done by a member of the Associate Dean’s office upon submission of the appropriate documentation.
- In order to register for LAW 399, you must have your instructor sign the “Consent to Supervise LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing and/or LAW 390 Major Paper Within a Course” form and you must file the completed form with the Associate Dean’s office. On the form, you must indicate whether the paper will be 1.0, 1.5 or 2.0 units. The fillable form is available on the law registration webpage.
- The form must be submitted no later than the add/drop deadline for the particular term in which the LAW 399 paper is to be completed.
- The approval of the Associate Dean, Academic & Student Relations is needed if the LAW 399 is to be completed for only 1.0 unit. A LAW 399 paper that is completed for only 1.0 unit of credit and that has fewer than 7,500 words does not meet the Faculty’s major paper requirement.
- Where a student is seeking to complete a LAW 399 in a topic that could be addressed within course work, Faculty are encouraged to consult with the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.
- In rare occasions due to exceptional circumstances, the course may be extended over two terms with prior written approval of the supervising professor and the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Successful completion of a supervised research paper in LAW 399 will satisfy the requirements of the major research paper regulations provided the paper is no fewer than 7,500 words in length (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) and the student receives a grade of 65% or better on the paper.

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues is a course that usually has multiple sections. Each section is a different topic with a different schedule. There is only one section for each topic. Students may take more than one LAW 343 course during their law degree.

Skills and Clinical Courses

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are encouraged to take courses with considerable experiential content. For example, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic or Environmental Law Clinic) or a skills course (Advocacy, Legal Skills or Advanced Legal Research and Writing). For detailed information about clinical courses see the section on Term and Clinical Programs below.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The three skills courses are in high demand and are traditionally oversubscribed. Students interested in these courses are highly encouraged to register in one of Advocacy, Legal Skills or ALRW in the 2021-22 academic year due to limited spaces and high demand.
Legal Perspectives Courses

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are urged to take at least one legal perspectives course in either second or third year. For example, the following courses, not all of which may be offered in any given year, are regarded to be legal perspectives courses:

- Animals, Culture and the Law
- Jurisprudence
- Indigenous Legal Theories
- Feminist Legal Theories
- Green Legal Theory
- Law and Society in Southeast Asia
- Queering Law
- International Human Rights and Dispute Resolution
- Historical Foundation of Common Law
- Law and Religion
- Equality, Human Rights and Social Justice Law
- Inter-societal Jurisprudence through Cinema

LAW 365 Legal Mooting

A separate 2021-22 mooting document is posted on the law registration webpage.

The following credit has been assigned to these moot competitions:

- The BC Law Schools Moot Competition: 1.5 units
- The Bowman National Tax Moot: 1.5 units
- The Canadian Client Consultation Competition: 1.5 units
- The Fox Intellectual Property Moot: 1.5 units
- The Gale Cup: 1.5 units
- The Jessup International Law Moot: 2.0 units
- The Kawaskimhon Moot: 1.5 units
- The Western Canada Mock Trial (MacIntyre-Sopinka): 1.5 units
- The Willms and Shier Environmental Law Moot: 1.5 units
- The Wilson Moot: 1.5 units

Selection for Mooting Teams

Selection for mooting teams is by competition, which occurs in early September. Students cannot register for LAW 365 unless they are selected to participate in a moot through the selection process. Students should therefore register in a full course load in June, and drop a course in spring term if they are selected. In any given year, it is possible that the Faculty will not participate in one or more of the above moots.

Researcher Position

Some moots may have a researcher position. Researchers earn slightly less credit than students who act as counsel, and do not normally travel with the team to attend the moot. Selection for researcher positions will also take place in September.

Academic Credit for Moots

Credit for moots is awarded in the spring term unless special permission is sought and granted by the Associate Dean, Academic and Students Relations. This permission will only be granted in exceptional circumstances as the moot competitions occur in the spring term. Students who participate in moots as researchers get slightly less credit than those who act as counsel, typically 1.0 unit.
Students cannot participate in more than one moot in a single academic year. A student may be awarded credit in their upper-year program to a maximum of 2.0 units in an academic year and 4.0 units in the student’s entire program, for supervised participation in mooting programs approved by the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations. The Canadian Client Consultation Competition is considered to be a moot for these purposes. This regulation is strictly enforced. No exceptions are permitted under any circumstances.

Students may participate in more than one moot competition during their program, including the same moot competition. Students who wish to participate in a second moot, must compete a second time, even if for the same moot competition. Students who have mooted competitively for credit in an earlier year, may only do so again if numbers permit. Priority will always be given to students who have not had the opportunity to moot over those that have.

First year students will not receive credit for moot competitions, though they may compete in some of the moots.

Co-op and Moot Eligibility

Co-op students may be eligible to participate in the mooting program. Students must notify the Law Co-op Coordinator of their intention to participate in the moot run-offs.

Student must obtain written permission from the Law Co-op Coordinator before participating in the mooting run-offs.

See the Law Co-op Handbook for the guidelines that will be applied in determining whether a co-op student may participate in a moot while on a work term. Each student’s circumstances are unique, so decisions will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Term courses and moot eligibility

Preparation for moots begins in fall term and students must be available to meet with their team in both fall and spring terms. For this reason, students in Law Centre, full-time field schools or on exchange in either term cannot participate in a moot.

UVic Law’s legal journal Appeal: Review of Current Law and Law Reform offers registered students the opportunity to participate, as members of the editorial board, in the production of a legal review. LAW 389 is a year-long course worth 2.0 units. Students may choose to be registered for 1.0 unit in the fall and 1.0 unit in the spring or 2.0 units in the spring term. It is not possible to register for the 2.0 units in the fall.

The deadline to apply for Appeal in 2021-2022 was in March 2021. Students seeking information may email the editors at appeal@uvic.ca. Specific meeting times for this course may be established in consultation, prior to the start of term.
To qualify for LAW 389 and to be a member of the Appeal Board, students MUST be eligible for registration in classes for both the fall term 2021 and spring term 2022. Students scheduled to be in Law Centre, a full-time field course or on an exchange term, are not eligible to register in LAW 389.

Co-op students who receive an offer to participate in Appeal must contact the Law Co-op Coordinator to obtain permission if the course occurs during a work term.

LAW 352 Exchange Term

Students are encouraged to consider participating in an exchange term with one of UVic Law’s exchange partners. Exchange terms are evaluated on a pass/fail basis and are, in most situations, 7.5 units of block credit. The process for applying for an exchange term in 2021-2022 took place in February 2021.

For details on exchange opportunities see: https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/exchangeterms/index.php. Any and all questions, including what can and cannot be combined with an exchange term should be directed to Katharine Waring: ldeanadm@uvic.ca.

Courses in Other Faculties at the University of Victoria

During their JD an upper-year student may take a maximum of 3.0 units worth of courses in other faculties within the university for credit toward their JD degree. All students must obtain the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations as well as the instructor of the course in advance of registering for the course. If the course is graduate level, the student must also meet the admissions standards of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and obtain the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Students may be asked to justify to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations how the course fits with their JD program.

Students taking courses in other faculties should be aware that supplemental examinations are not offered by all departments. Furthermore, even where supplemental examinations are available, the student must have achieved a final grade of "E" (not "F"). If a law student received an "F" (0 to 49%) grade in a course outside the Faculty of Law and could not write a supplemental in that course, the student would not achieve standing in the Faculty of Law for that year.

Cross-Listed Courses

Each year, the Faculty of Law offers courses that are cross-listed with other faculties. Taking a cross-listed course can enrich a student's learning experience by adding an interdisciplinary dimension. The following courses will be offered in 2021-2022:

Term and Clinical Programs

Students may consider taking a term or clinical program in second or third year law. The rationale for the development of the clinical and term programs is to provide students with an opportunity to apply their knowledge of the law, to develop an understanding of legal processes, to develop lawyering skills and to provide an opportunity to achieve some degree of specialization in an intense and closely supervised format. Students may not enrol in more than two term programs. Except in unusual and compelling circumstances, students who enrol in a term program are not permitted to enrol in other courses during that term without the authorization of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

LAW 350 Clinical Law Term - The Law Centre

In this full-time full term clinical course students will receive training in interviewing, counselling, negotiation, mediation, advocacy before Provincial Court and administrative tribunals, and drafting. They will represent clients who present with problems related to criminal law, corrections law, family law, human rights law, and a variety of civil law issues. Students will develop awareness of legal and social problems of economically disadvantaged, significantly ill, liberty challenged, Indigenous and aged members of society.

This process requires a carefully supervised program with manifold opportunities for one-to-one instructor student supervision and regular group sessions. The Law Centre Program takes place in a community law office and the maximum enrollment is 14 students. Students who enroll in the Law Centre are required to obtain Temporary Articles through the Law Society of British Columbia.

The credit value of the term is 7.5 units. LAW 309 Evidence is a required prerequisite.

Students interested in the Law Centre term program should review the Law Centre’s website http://thelawcentre.ca/. Law Centre is offered in fall, spring and summer with 14 spaces available in each term. Registration for this term program will be determined by lottery. See the section below on Admission to Law Centre for details.

Admission Lottery and Registration Priority

Lottery Deadline: Wednesday, June 9, 2021, at 12:00 noon Pacific Daylight Time

The LAW 350 Law Centre Ballot can be found on the law registration webpage.
Admission Lottery and Registration Priority
Admission to LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Term (Law Centre) is determined by lottery. If you wish to register in Law Centre in fall term 2021 or spring term 2022 you must submit a ballot by the deadline indicated. Students may ballot for one term only (either fall 2021 or spring 2022) during the lottery.

There are 14 places available in each term. Priority admission will be given to students in their third year of legal studies in fall term 2021.

The Law Centre ballot can be found on the law registration page.

Lottery Deadline
Submit your ballot (email only) by no later than Wednesday, June 9, 2021 at 12:00 noon Pacific Daylight Time to Madeleine Wong at law.studentservices@uvic.ca. In your email subject line, type “BALLOT LAW 350 Law Centre”

You may submit one ballot only. The lottery deadline is strictly enforced. Late ballots are accepted; however, your name will be added to the end of the list or waitlist regardless of your year of study. If the ballot is no longer posted on the website, please contact Law Student Services at law.studentservices@uvic.ca to be added to the waitlist.

Lottery Results
Participating students will be advised of the results of the lottery within several days, and prior to the first day of registration. If you accept an offer, consider it to be a serious commitment that you will attend the course. If you aren’t sure whether to accept an offer, discuss your situation with us. Withdrawals are problematic, particularly as the start of term approaches.

Registration
If you ballot successfully for Law Centre, front office staff will register you in LAW 350 Law Centre for 7.5 units in the appropriate term. You will be eligible to register for your other term online on your designated registration day.

If you are waitlisted for Law Centre, plan to register yourself in regular courses on your registration day. If you decide to withdraw from LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Term please advise Law Student Services at law.studentservices@uvic.ca immediately.

Prerequisites
The required prerequisite for Law Centre is LAW 309 Law of Evidence. Recommended prerequisites are LAW 303 Criminal Procedure and LAW 322 Family Law.
Other Courses

Students registered in Law Centre are not permitted to register in any other course in addition to LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Term.

Deferred Coursework or Academic Standing Issues

Students with deferred work from a prior term, or who are not in good academic standing when the term begins, will be required to withdraw from Law Centre. In extenuating circumstances, permission to continue may be granted by the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Term Dates

The Law Centre is a term program with a credit value of 7.5 units. It is scheduled from the regular start of term to the end of the fourth month of term. The end date does not coincide with the end of classes or the end of the exam period.

Attendance

The Law Centre term begins with an intensive orientation period that runs for the first four weeks of term in the law school. Full-time attendance during these four weeks of orientation is required. Permission to miss a class/session will only be granted for reasons of accommodation or in other limited circumstances. Students with questions about this requirement, or who are seeking accommodation should contact the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Waitlist

14 seats are available in the Law Centre in each of the fall term and the spring term. A waitlist will be created for each term, and maintained by Law Student Services. Qualified students who participate in the lottery but do not obtain a place in the Law Centre will be automatically waitlisted in the term for which they balloted and may also upon request (see question 4 on ballot) be added to the waitlist of the other term. Students who miss the balloting deadline will be added to the bottom of the waitlist(s) of their choice on a first come first served basis, regardless of their year of study. Students who obtain a place in the Law Centre will not be placed on the waitlist for the term for which they did not ballot. These students may however, request to be added to the waitlist after the lottery results are released but will be given lowest priority.

The Faculty of Law reserves the right to exercise an overriding discretion in regard to the interpretation and application of all priority rules.

LAW 349 Business Law Clinic (BLC)

The Business Law Clinic (BLC), LAW 349 brings together a dynamic combination of senior law students, community-based entrepreneurs and innovative businesses owners. The BLC can provide legal information about issues that are important to small businesses. As the owners and law students work together, they learn that a venture's path to success is greatly assisted when owners consult with legal counselors in the initial development stage of the business. Typical legal issues faced by entrepreneurs or business owners are dealt with in this course, including the protection of ideas, business formats, bank or investor financing, product liability, commercial contracts and the selection of a lawyer.
Students can register for LAW 349 BLC in Online Tools on their registration day. LAW 349 BLC has a credit value of 1.5 units per term. LAW 315 Business Associations is a required pre- or corequisite for LAW 349. See information below regarding restrictions relating to taking this course twice.

LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic (ELC)

The Environmental Law Clinic (ELC), LAW 353, is the Faculty's foundational environmental clinical course. Students receive supervised experience working for conservation, community and First Nation clients.

The class will meet weekly for a 3-hour seminar in which legal skills and professional responsibility issues are learned and discussed. LAW 353 is offered every term and has a cap of ten to twelve students. Students can register for LAW 353 ELC in Online Tools on their registration day. LAW 353 may be taken for 1.5 units or, with the prior permission of both the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the instructor, for 2.0 units per term. See information below regarding restrictions on taking LAW 353 ELC twice.

LAW 353 ELC is a required prerequisite for LAW 353A ELC Intensive, offered in spring 2022. See the section below.

LAW 353A Environmental Law Centre Clinic (ELC) Intensive

Lottery Deadline: Wednesday, June 9, 2021, at 12:00 noon Pacific Daylight Time
The LAW 353A ELC Intensive Ballot can be found on the law registration webpage

LAW 353A ELC Intensive will be offered in spring 2022. This course is for students that have completed LAW 353 ELC in a previous term, and provides a further opportunity to engage in public interest environmental lawyering in a supervised clinical setting working in a team environment and on multiple client projects. Students provide legal information and capacity to environmental, community and Indigenous organizations; and develop case and file management, client counselling, advocacy, and legal research and writing skills. Students meet with ELC staff and other students on a weekly basis, contribute to case development, and deliver client-centred projects on multiple files.

Eligibility and Admission to ELC Intensive

Admission to LAW 353A Environmental Law Centre Clinic (ELC) Intensive in spring term 2022 will be determined by lottery. In addition, all interested students are required to contact course instructor Professor Deborah Curran (dlc@uvic.ca) in advance to express interest and discuss the ELC Intensive course requirements. There are six places available in ELC Intensive in spring 2022.

Registration in ELC Intensive counts towards the requirements of the Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability. See the law course registration webpage for information about the Concentration.
Lottery Deadline
Submit your ballot (email only) by no later than Wednesday, June 9, 2021 at 12:00 noon Pacific Daylight Time to Madeleine Wong at law.studentservices@uvic.ca. In your email subject line, type “BALLOT LAW 353A ELC Intensive”.

Lottery Results
Participating students will be advised of the results of the lottery within several days, and prior to the first day of registration in June.

Required Prerequisite Course
LAW 353 Environmental Law Centre Clinic is a required prerequisite course for LAW 353A ELC Intensive. Students who are not currently registered in LAW 353 in summer 2021 and have not successfully completed LAW 353 prior to balloting must ensure they meet the requirements in their fall term 2021 course registration.

Registration
Students who ballot successfully will be manually registered in LAW 353A ELC Intensive (2.0 units) in spring term 2022 by Law Student Services staff. Students will also be manually registered in LAW 353 ELC (1.5 units) in fall 2021 if they have not completed LAW 353 in a previous term.

LAW 353 Environmental Law Centre Clinic and LAW 349 Business Law Clinic Restrictions
The course descriptions for these two clinical offerings indicate that, with the approval of the Associate Dean and the instructor, students may enrol in either of these courses twice. However, you must not register in LAW 353 or LAW 349 for a second time without prior approval of both the Associate Dean and the Instructor. Such approval is highly exceptional and will only be granted if there is space available in the course at the beginning of a term. That is, students who have not yet had an opportunity to take the course will have priority.

LAW 343E CELÁNENEŁ: A Field Course in the Re-emergence of WSÁNEĆ Law

Lottery Deadline: Wednesday, June 9, 2021, at 12:00 noon Pacific Daylight Time

The LAW 343E CELÁNENEŁ Field Course Ballot will be posted on the law registration webpage.

Admission to LAW 343E CELÁNENEŁ: A Field Course in the Re-emergence of WSÁNEĆ Law will be determined by lottery.

LAW 343E is a 7.5 unit field course offered in spring 2022. It will be taught by Allard School of Law Professor Rob Clifford UBC, with 7 seats reserved for UVic Law students.

Detailed information on this field course will be included on the ballot which will be posted on the law registration webpage when it’s available.
Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability

The concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability will provide students with the opportunity to immerse themselves in environmental law and sustainability, and to use their legal knowledge in the direct service of real clients pursuing a range of interests aimed at environmental protection. Students who complete the eight required courses and electives will receive a notation on their transcript. For details, please see the program information posted with the 2021-2022 registration materials on the law registration webpage.

Co-op

Co-op students must follow one of the three approved academic term/work term schedule options outlined in the Law Co-op Handbook. Schedule changes require the permission of the Law Co-op Coordinator and this is only granted in exceptional circumstances. Typically, Law Co-op students are expected to attend one academic summer session.

Co-op students have priority registration in Summer Session courses.

With permission from the Law Co-op Coordinator and the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations, co-op students may be eligible to take a course during a term when they will be on a workterm. Approval will not be given for course-work that occurs during hours of co-op employment.

Course Registration

Authorization to Register

Students are authorized to register for courses according to their progress in their law program (i.e. second year or third year).

For course registration purposes, a third-year student will have completed the second year of the JD program before the start of Winter Session 2021 (i.e., September 2021). A second year student will have completed first year before the start of the Winter Session 2021 (i.e., September 2021). Third year students have priority access to upper-year courses and register one day earlier than second year students.

Students are authorized to register in June for the entire Winter Session 2021-2022 (fall term 2021 and spring term 2022). Ensure that you register for both terms (unless you are a co-op student) on your authorized date of registration.

Course Registration Dates

Tues., June 15, 2021 “Day 1”  8:00 a.m. PT Registration opens for JD students starting or continuing in third year in September 2021

No other JD students will have access to registration on this date
Wed., June 16, 2021 “Day 2”  8:00 a.m. PT Registration opens for JD students starting or continuing in second year in September 2021

Thurs., June 17, 2021 “Day 3” Co-op students are eligible to register for courses in the term in which they are scheduled to be on a work term. Co-op students cannot register for courses in a work term prior to day 3.

IMPORTANT: On Thursday, June 3, you will receive a “time ticket” email from Undergraduate Records regarding the assignment of 2021-22 registration dates.

Students are responsible for confirming their own eligibility and registration dates and times.

To see when your assigned registration time is:
1. Login to Online Tools
2. Go to “Student Services”
3. Under “Registration, select “Registration status”
4. Select an upcoming session to see:
   • registration date in the “From” column
   • registration time (Pacific) in the “Begin Time” column
   • if there is a hold on your account that will stop you from being able to register
   • program details including faculty.

Holds on your account due to unpaid fees can only be resolved by paying the fees.

If your registration date or time is incorrect, contact Yvonne Lawson at lawmaass@uvic.ca well before the registration dates to allow time to resolve the problem.

Registration via Online Tools: Instructions
Courses fill up quickly. To ensure you have the best course selection possible, be prepared and register promptly at your designated time.

Watch this “How to register” tutorial.

For Quick Registration:
1. Login to Online Tools
2. Go to “Student Services”
3. Under “Registration, select “Add or drop classes”
4. Enter the 5 digit CRN* of each of your course selections and click “submit changes”

*The CRNs are listed in the law fall and spring course schedules in the column marked CRN. Know the CRNs (Course Reference Numbers) for your selected courses.

Do not use the Look Up Classes and Class Search options as it takes longer and is unnecessary given that the law schedule includes the CRNs. Also, the Class Search option sometimes incorrectly indicates “C” that a course is “closed” even though students may waitlist, if they wish, in the Add or Drop Classes area.

Proxy Registration: If you have a commitment that conflicts with your registration time (e.g. air travel, work responsibilities, unreliable internet) enlist a trusted friend or relative to register you in Online tools. As a precaution, you may wish to contact Yvonne Lawson (lawmaass@uvic.ca) to provide the person’s name and confirm that your personal registration situation may be discussed in the event that they experience registration issues, i.e. your proxy may contact Yvonne directly for assistance.

Registration Holds or Blocks
Ensure that you have no holds on your record that will prevent you from registering.

1. Login to Online Tools
2. Go to “Student Services”
3. Under “Registration, select “Registration status”
4. Select the Term and click Submit to see your registration date and time
5. Click on “Holds & alerts” tab to see if there are any holds on your record

There is a strict University of Victoria policy that if you have overdue fees you will be blocked from registration. This includes tuition, ancillary fees and co-op work term fees. Students registered in co-op work terms or courses in summer term 2021 are reminded that summer term tuition was due May 31, 2021.
Note that it can take 48 hours for payment to be processed and for the block to be removed by Accounting. Due to COVID 19, processing time may take longer. This means settling an overdue account one day before registration does not allow enough time. For inquiries regarding fee-related blocks to your account contact UVic Accounting at tuition@uvic.ca, 250-721-7032 or toll free at 1-800-663-5260. More detailed information is here http://www.uvic.ca/vpfo/accounting/services/tuition/index.php.

Double degree students and students completing their first-year course requirements on a part-time basis should contact Yvonne Lawson (lawmaass@uvic.ca) in advance for registration assistance. Registration blocks are usual.

Course Waitlists: How to Add, Drop and Maintain your Place

Review this How to Get on a Waitlist and Manage a Waitlist Tutorial.

CAUTION: Registration offers will be sent to your Preferred Email address. If you receive a registration offer, you must respond by the deadline specified in your offer or you will be dropped from the waitlist. To accept the offer, select “Register” from the Action drop-down menu and click “Submit Changes.” If you do not respond and are subsequently dropped from the waitlist, you may waitlist yourself a second time. Unfortunately, you will have lost your priority and will be added to the end of the waitlist.

Registration Offers - Durations: During the summer months, you will have one week to respond to registration offers for both fall and spring courses. In September, this will drop to a 24-hour response time for fall term courses. In January, the response time will drop to 24 hours for spring term courses. Check your offer dates and times very carefully.

Registration and Waitlist Combined Limit

Law students may be waitlisted and registered in a combined total of 10.0 units per term. 8.5 units is the maximum registered units permitted and an additional 1.5 units is given to allow waitlist flexibility. This means students registered in 8.5 units may only waitlist for one additional 1.5 unit course or a student registered in 6.0 units may waitlist for up to 4.0 more units of courses. Plan your registration accordingly.

Checking Course Enrollment and Waitlist Numbers

To view whether space is available in any given course, go to the Class Schedule Search webpage.

CAUTION: In viewing the Registration Availability table for any given course, you must look at the Waitlist Seats row as well as the Seats row. The table may indicate that one or more seats are remaining, however if there are any waitlisted students they will be first in line to receive offers for those empty seats. You will not be able to register in the empty seats ahead of them; you will be offered the option to waitlist if you try to register.
Course Offering Patterns Guide

To assist you with longer term course planning, the Course Offering Patterns Guide is posted on the law registration webpage. The information in this document is offered solely to help students plan their overall programs and does not constitute a promise to offer a particular course in a particular term in future years.

Skills and Clinical Courses: Registration Restrictions

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic, Environmental Law Clinic, ELC Intensive, Field Courses and Intensive Term) or a skills course (Legal Skills, Advanced Legal Research and Writing or Advocacy). These courses have low caps and are in high demand and typically fill up on the first day of registration. Skill courses are generally only available in Winter Session however there are two or three clinical courses regularly offered in Summer Session.

Clinical Courses:
- LAW 343E CELÁNENEŁ: A Field Course in the Re-emergence of WSÁNEĆ Law
- LAW 349 Business Law Clinic
- LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Law Term
- LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic

Skills Courses:
- LAW 355 Legal Skills, cap is 18 (one section in spring, 18 seats); and
- LAW 388 ALRW, cap is 18 (one section in fall term and one section in spring term, 36 seats); and
- LAW 356 Advocacy, cap is 12 (two sections in fall term and two sections in spring term, 48 seats).

The total for the 2021-22 academic year is 102 seats; students are encouraged to register for only one of these courses to ensure that 102 students in any given year have the opportunity to take one of these skills courses.
