General Information for JD/JID Students

This planning guide contains information for law students in the JD/JID program. If you are a JD student, please refer to the JD Guide.

Law students can register for upper-year courses in June 2023 through UVic Online tools. If you are eligible for second, third, or fourth-year law you will be automatically authorized to register in the 2023-23 Winter Session.

All JD/JID students will be registering on the first day of the registration period, Tuesday, June 13, 2023, at either 8:00 am or 1:00 pm depending on their year of study.

This guide, accompanied by the faculty timetables, schedules and websites (Law and UVic) will give you detailed information about the course offerings, faculty regulations and important dates. Please review all information thoroughly prior to registration. The information is posted on the law registration webpage.

If you have questions, contact Yvonne Lawson, Manager, Academic and Students at 250-721-8153 or lawmaass@uvic.ca.

Planning and Course Selection

This section lists some general information about the Faculty of Law program requirements. A full description of program requirements is available in the UVic Calendar. It is your responsibility to ensure that your program meets the University of Victoria's and the Faculty of Law's requirements, regulations, policies and procedures as stated in the University of Victoria Calendar and on the faculty's website under Student and Academic Matters.

Unit Requirements for Each of Second, Third and Fourth Year

Full-time second, third and fourth-year JD/JID students must take a minimum of 14.5 units to a maximum of 16.5 units in each academic year of their program. The academic year consists of winter session (fall and spring terms).

Full-time students may not register in fewer than 7.0 units or more than 8.5 units in a term. Part-time students must take a minimum of 3.0 units each term. Students hoping to depart from these registration requirements must request permission from the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations (lawassoc@uvic.ca).

Workload

Students should expect to be assigned 20 to 30 pages of reading per scheduled class hour for each course. You can expect a weekly total of 300 to 500 pages of reading each week. Some readings are quick and easily understood and some will require a slow and detailed reading. There may also be differences in teaching styles, course materials and content, assigned readings and evaluation methods among sections of each course. Details about workload expectations and online components of each course will be made available in course descriptions and/or on associated Brightspace sites.

Course Information and Counselling

The elective components in the upper years of the JD and JD/JID program require informed course counselling and course selection. Students may draw on the following resources when making course selection decisions:

- Course timetables and examination schedules
- Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)
- Course Offering Patterns Guide
- The Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations
- The Associate Dean, Administration and Research
- The Manager, Academic Administration and Student Services
- The Director, JID
- The Director, Indigenous Initiatives
- The Law Careers Officer
- Faculty members
- Law Careers Office

Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)

For each course, a Preliminary Course Information Summary (PCIS) will be posted on the Faculty of Law website prior to registration: <http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/pcisindex.php>. PCIS are intended to help you with your course selection decisions. PCIS are to be used as a guideline only and are subject to change. Course descriptions will be posted on Brightspace and will be available to registered students at the start of term.

Course Prerequisites and Corequisites

Several upper year law courses have required pre/corequisite law courses. This should be considered during your course planning. Students must not register in courses for which they do not have the required pre/corequisites. If you register in a course and are missing the required pre/corequisites, you will not be permitted to remain in the course. The compulsory first year law curriculum is considered to be a prerequisite for upper-year courses. Review Appendix 1: Course Prerequisites and Corequisites table within this guide.

Given that JD/JID students do not enroll in LAW 105I Transsystemic Contracts and LAW 109I Transsystemic Torts (LAW 109 Torts in 2023-2024) until the second year of their program, they will not be eligible to enroll in upper-year courses that list those as prerequisites and corequisites until their third year. Review the list of Upper-Year JD Courses Available to Second-Year JD/JID Students within this guide.

Examination Schedules

Examination schedules for fall 2023 and spring 2024 terms will be posted prior to registration beginning. It is the student's responsibility to select courses that do not have conflicting exams and to pay due attention to the timing of take-home exams. Students who wish to avoid consecutive examinations must select their courses accordingly. Students with exams on consecutive days do not have grounds for deferrals on this basis.

Any travel arrangements for the end of term must be made to avoid conflict with final examinations. We highly advise that travel not be scheduled before the end of the exam period. Students may be required to write a deferred exam due to weather or other extenuating circumstances within the exam period; early travel scheduled at your own risk.

Cancellation or Rescheduling of Courses

Any course or program may be cancelled or rescheduled due to insufficient enrollment or other administrative circumstances. New course restrictions or prerequisites may also be imposed.

Enrollment Limitations

Courses and seminars have enrollment limitations that are listed under the heading "Cap" on the Course Schedules. The Faculty of Law reserves the right to place a cap on any course for pedagogical reasons or due to space limitations. Students should not expect course caps to be raised when courses are oversubscribed.

Compulsory Upper-Year Courses

In order to graduate, all law students must successfully complete the Faculty's major paper requirement (LAW 390 or LAW 388).

Please see Appendix 5: JD/JID Required Courses at the end of this document for the full list of the JD/JID requirements, and the years in which they must be taken.

In addition to the courses listed in Appendix 5, JD/JID Students must successfully complete the following compulsory upper-level courses:

- LAW 390 or LAW 388: Faculty major research paper requirement,
- LAW 301I Transsystemic Administrative Law or LAW 301 The Administrative Law Process (Note: in 2023-24 second-year JD/JID students are required to take LAW 301I in fall 2023); and
- LAW 315I Transsystemic Business Associations (Note: in 2023-24 fourth-year JD/JID students are required to take LAW 315I in spring 2024); and
- LAW 360 Legal Ethics and Professionalism;

Major Research Paper Requirement

During the upper years of the program, all students must fulfill the “major research paper” requirement. A major research paper is a legal research paper of no fewer than 7,500 words (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) on an approved subject which counts for at least 50% of the grade in a course and on which the student achieves a minimum grade of 65%. The major research paper requirement may be satisfied by:

1. writing a major research paper in a course (where permitted by the instructor) under the Faculty regulations governing such papers; OR
2. successfully completing LAW 388 Advanced Legal Research and Writing; OR
3. writing a directed major research paper in LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing; OR
4. writing a major research paper in one of the two required field courses, IF this option is offered by the field course instructor (LAW 350I and LAW 450I).

Faculty regulations governing major research papers are posted on the faculty website under Student and Academic Matters. The course syllabus will typically indicate the number of major research papers, if any, the instructor will be willing to supervise in that course.

LAW 390 Major Research Paper in a Course

Students planning to write their major research paper in a course (other than LAW 399 or LAW 388), where such papers are permitted by the instructor, must register in the course in the usual way and must also complete the Consent to Supervise a Major Paper Within a Course form from the front office. The form requires the instructor's signature. The completed and signed form must be submitted to the Assistant to the Associate Dean at the beginning of the term in which the paper will be written. Students unsure about whether a major research paper will be permitted in a particular course should consult with the instructor or the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations. Students are urged to consider this option for completing the major paper requirement, as opposed to enrolling in LAW 399.

LAW 390 Major Research Paper Registration

Students completing their major research paper within a course will also be registered in LAW 390 for the term in which they complete the paper. The LAW 390 registration is used for tracking and transcript purposes only and bears no unit value. (The student is already obtaining credit for the course in which the paper requirement is being fulfilled.) Front office staff will register the student in LAW 390 when the completed and signed consent form (see above) is submitted at the beginning of term. Students who have secured a supervisor for LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing should indicate on the consent form whether the paper is intended to fulfill the major research paper requirement. If this is the case, front office staff will register the student in both LAW 399 (for credit) and LAW 390 (for tracking). Not all LAW 399 papers meet the major paper requirement so this information must be included on the consent form. Students meeting the major research paper requirement by registering in LAW 388 ALRW will not be registered in LAW 390.

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing provides law students an opportunity to undertake substantial research and writing on a legal subject approved by a Faculty member who agrees to supervise the paper.

The calendar description for LAW 399 is as follows:

(Units: 1.0-4.0) During either of the second or third years of a student's program, a student may undertake a substantial research and writing project on a legal subject approved by a member of the Faculty of Law who agrees to supervise the project. With the approval of the Dean or the Dean's nominee: (1) a student may be awarded credit for two separate supervised research papers provided that the total credit does not exceed 4 units and each paper is started and completed in separate terms; (2) this course may be extended over two terms; or (3) this course is to be taken for 1 unit only.

The following guidelines apply to LAW 399 paper proposals.

- Students are generally expected to satisfy their LAW 390 Major Paper Requirement in a regular course offering rather than applying for LAW 399.
- An exception can be made where LAW 399 offers a student an opportunity to complete an original research and writing project, of publishable quality, where the subject matter of the paper is such that there is not a course-based opportunity to complete this work.
- Students are strongly advised to seek Faculty Member approval for a LAW 399 well in advance. Faculty Members may be approached by students about supervising a LAW 399 one to two terms in advance.
- Faculty Members are generally not available to supervise LAW 399 papers in their non-teaching term. In particular, there are limited opportunities to write LAW 399 papers in the summer term.

- Sessional and adjunct instructors do not normally supervise LAW 399 papers.
- The availability of LAW 399 is subject to the agreement of a supervising Faculty Member. Whether, and under what circumstances, a Faculty member agrees to supervise a LAW 399 is ultimately subject to the discretion of the supervising Faculty Member.
- Students should keep in mind that a LAW 399 paper is a major undertaking. A LAW 399 paper worth 1.5 units will be analogous to the time requirements of a 1.5 unit course.

LAW 399 Registration

- Students cannot register themselves for LAW 399; this must be done by a member of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations' office upon submission of the appropriate documentation.
- In order to register for LAW 399, you must have your instructor sign a "Consent to Supervise LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing and/or LAW 390 Major Paper Within a Course" form or provide their consent by email and you must email the completed form with the Associate Dean's office (by email to law.studentservices@uvic.ca). The fillable form is available on the law registration webpage.
- The form must be submitted no later than the add/drop deadline for the particular term in which the LAW 399 paper is to be completed.
- The approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations is needed if the LAW 399 is to be completed for only 1.0 unit. A LAW 399 paper that is completed for only 1.0 unit of credit and that has fewer than 7,500 words does not meet the Faculty's major paper requirement.
- Where a student is seeking to complete a LAW 399 in a topic that could be addressed within course work, Faculty are encouraged to consult with the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.
- In rare occasions due to exceptional circumstances, the course may be extended over two terms with prior written approval of the supervising professor and the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Successful completion of a supervised research paper in LAW 399 will satisfy the requirements of the major research paper regulations provided the paper is no fewer than 7,500 words in length (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) and the student receives a grade of 65% or better on the paper.

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law is a course that usually has multiple sections. Each section is a different topic with a different schedule. There is only one section for each topic. Students may take more than one LAW 343 course during their law degree. Not all Law 343 courses will be available to second year JD/JID students due to prerequisites. Please see Appendix 4 LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law courses offered in 2023-24, and also course PCIS.

Skills and Clinical Courses

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are encouraged to take courses with considerable experiential content. For example, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic or Environmental Law Clinic) or a skills course (Advocacy, Legal Skills or Advanced Legal Research and Writing). For detailed information about clinical courses see the section on Term and Clinical Programs below.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The three skills courses are in high demand and are traditionally oversubscribed. Students interested in taking these courses are highly encouraged to register in only one of Advocacy, Legal Skills or ALRW in the 2023-2024 academic year due to limited spaces and high demand.

Legal Perspectives Courses

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are urged to take at least one legal perspectives course in either second or third year. For example, the following courses will be offered in 2023-2024:

Indigenous Legal Theories	Historical Foundation of Common Law
Law and Society in Southeast Asia	Inter-societal Jurisprudence through Cinema
Legal History of the Right to Vote	International Human Rights and Dispute Resolution
Access to Justice

LAW 365 Legal Mooting

Students are eligible to compete for moots once they have completed any applicable first-year prerequisites. Additionally, students must be available to meet with their team in both fall and spring terms, and, therefore, cannot be enrolled in a field course (i.e., LAW 350I and 450I). For these reasons, JD/JID students will only be able to participate in moots during the second year of their program, except fourth-year JD/JID students may participate in the Kawaskimhon Moot in spring 2024 as they will not be in field school.

Each year the Faculty participates in a variety of moots. Information about the mooting program, including the moots available in 2023-24, will be posted in early September.

In the past, the Faculty has participated in the following moots:

The Bowman National Tax Moot	1.5 units
The Canadian Client Consultation Competition	1.5 units
The Fox Intellectual Property Moot	1.5 units
The Gale Cup	1.5 units
The Jessup International Law Moot	2.0 units
The Julius Alexander Isaac Moot	1.5 units
The Kawaskimhon Moot	1.5 units
The Western Canada Mock Trial (MacIntyre-Sopinka)	1.5 units
The Willms and Shier Environmental Law Moot	1.5 units
The Wilson Moot	1.5 units

For more detailed information about specific moots please see last year's information.

Selection for Mooting Teams

Selection for mooting teams occurs in early September, except the Kawaskimhon Moot for which selection occurs in November. Students cannot register for LAW 365 unless they are selected to participate in a moot through the selection process. Students should therefore register in a full course load in June, and drop a course in spring term if they are selected. In any given year, it is possible that the Faculty will not participate in one or more of the above moots.

Researcher Position

Some moots may have a researcher position. Researchers earn slightly less credit than students who act as counsel, and do not normally travel with the team to attend the moot. Selection for researcher positions will also take place in September.

Academic Credit for Moots

Credit for moots is awarded in the spring term unless special permission is sought and granted by the Associate Dean, Academic and Students Relations. This permission will only be granted in exceptional circumstances as the moot competitions occur in the spring term. Students who participate in moots as researchers get slightly less credit than those who act as counsel, typically 1.0 unit.

Students cannot participate in more than one moot in a single academic year. A student may be awarded credit in their second year program to a maximum of 2.0 units in an academic year. This regulation is strictly enforced. No exceptions are permitted under any circumstances.

Term courses and moot eligibility

Preparation for moots begins in fall term and students must be available to meet with their team in both fall and spring terms. For this reason, students in Law Centre, full-time field schools or on exchange in either term cannot participate in a moot.

LAW 389 Appeal: Review of Current Law and Law Reform Law Journal

UVic Law's legal journal Appeal: Review of Current Law and Law Reform offers registered students the opportunity to participate, as members of the editorial board, in the production of a legal review. LAW 389 is a year-long course worth 2.0 units. Students may choose to be registered for 1.0 unit in the fall and 1.0 unit in the spring or 2.0 units in the spring term. It is not possible to register for the 2.0 units in the fall.

The deadline to apply for Appeal in 2023-2023 was in March 2023. Students seeking information may email the editors at appeal@uvic.ca. Specific meeting times for this course may be established in consultation, prior to the start of term.

To qualify for LAW 389 and to be a member of the Appeal Board, students MUST be eligible for registration in classes for both the fall term 2023 and spring term 2024. Students scheduled to be in Law Centre or on an exchange term are not eligible to register in LAW 389.

LAW 352 Exchange Term

Exchange terms are evaluated on a pass/fail basis, and are in most situations, 7.5 units of block credit. The process for applying for an exchange term in 2023-2024 took place in February 2023.

For details on exchange opportunities see: <https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/exchangeterms/index.php>. Any and all questions, including what can and cannot be combined with an exchange term should be directed to Fran Blake: lawcaa@uvic.ca.

Courses in Other Faculties at the University of Victoria

After first year, a student may take a maximum of 3.0 units worth of courses in other faculties within the university for credit toward their JD/JID degree. All students must obtain the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations as well as the instructor of the course in advance of registering for the course. If the course is graduate level, the student must also meet the admissions standards of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and obtain the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Students may be asked to justify to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations how the course fits with their JD/JID program.

Students taking courses in other faculties should be aware that supplemental examinations are not offered by all departments. Furthermore, even where supplemental examinations are available, the student must have achieved a final grade of "E" (not "F"). If a law student received an "F" (0 to 49%) grade in a course outside the Faculty of Law and could not write a supplemental in that course, the student would not achieve standing in the Faculty of Law for that year.

More detailed information is posted on the Student and Academic Matters webpage: <http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/studentacademicmatters/index.php>.

Cross-Listed Courses

Each year, the Faculty of Law offers courses that are cross-listed with other faculties. Taking a cross-listed course can enrich a student's learning experience by adding an interdisciplinary dimension. The following course will be offered in fall 2023:

Law	Cross List	Title	Instructor	Other Department	Law Cap	Term
343 A01	HSTR 519	Legal History of Right to Vote	Buck, Andrew	History	12	Fall

Term and Clinical Programs

Students may consider taking a term or clinical program in their third or fourth year. The rationale for the development of the clinical and term programs is to provide students with an opportunity to apply their knowledge of the law, to develop an understanding of legal processes, to develop lawyering skills and to provide an opportunity to achieve some degree of specialization in an intense and closely supervised format. Students may not enrol in more than two term programs. Except in unusual and compelling circumstances, students who enrol in a term program are not permitted to enrol in other courses during that term without the authorization of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

LAW 350 Clinical Law Term - The Law Centre

In 2023-2024, 3L JD/JID students may ballot for Law Centre in Fall 2023.

In this full-time term-long clinical course students will receive training in interviewing, counselling, negotiation, mediation, advocacy before Provincial Court and administrative tribunals, and drafting. They will represent clients who present with problems related to criminal law, corrections law, family law, human rights law, and a variety of civil law issues. Students will develop awareness of legal and social problems of economically disadvantaged, significantly ill, liberty challenged, Indigenous and aged members of society.

This process requires a carefully supervised program with manifold opportunities for one-to-one instructor student supervision and regular group sessions. The Law Centre Program takes place in a community law office and the maximum enrollment is 14 students. Students who enroll in the Law Centre are required to obtain Temporary Articles through the Law Society of British Columbia.

The credit value of the term is 7.5 units.

Students interested in the Law Centre term program should review the Law Centre's website <http://thelawcentre.ca/>. Law Centre is offered in fall, spring and summer with 14 spaces available in each term. Registration for this term program will be determined by lottery. See the section below on Admission to Law Centre for details.

Admission Lottery and Registration Priority

Lottery Deadline: Tuesday, June 6, 2023, at 12:00 noon PT

The LAW 350 Law Centre Ballot can be found on the law registration webpage

Admission Lottery and Registration Priority

Admission to LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Term (Law Centre) is determined by lottery. If you wish to register in Law Centre in fall term 2023 or spring term 2024 you must submit a ballot by the deadline indicated. Students may ballot for one term only (either fall 2023 or spring 2024) during the lottery.

There are 14 places available in each term. Priority admission will be given to students in their third (JD) or fourth (JD/JID) year of legal studies in fall term 2023, and to students who have taken one or more of the three following courses: LAW 309 Law of Evidence, LAW 303 Criminal Procedure or LAW 322 Family Law.

Information about the Law Centre is available here <http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/lawclinics/lawcentre/index.php> and here <http://thelawcentre.ca/>.

The Law Centre ballot can be found on the law registration page.

Lottery Deadline

Submit your ballot by email to law.studentservices@uvic.ca by no later than Tuesday, June 6, 2023 at 12:00 noon PT. In your email subject line, type “BALLOT LAW 350 Law Centre”

You will receive a confirmation email from a staff member in reply. You may submit one ballot only. The lottery deadline is strictly enforced. Late ballots are accepted; however, if there is a waitlist your name will be added to the end regardless of your year of study. If the ballot is no longer posted on the website, please contact law.studentservices@uvic.ca to be added to the waitlist.

Lottery Results

Participating students will be advised of the results of the lottery within a few days of the ballot deadline, and prior to the first day of registration. If you accept an offer, consider it to be a serious commitment that you will attend the course. If you aren't sure whether to accept an offer, let us know and we'll discuss your individual situation with you. Withdrawals are problematic, particularly as the start of term approaches.

Registration

If you ballot successfully for Law Centre, Law Student Services will register you in LAW 350 Law Centre for 7.5 units in the appropriate term. If you decide to withdraw from Law Centre please advise us by emailing law.studentservices@uvic.ca immediately. You will be eligible to register for your other term online on your designated registration day. If you are waitlisted for Law Centre, plan to register yourself in regular courses on your registration day.

Prerequisites

To be eligible for Law Centre, students must have completed a minimum of 7.0 units of upper-year law courses. Preference will be given to students who have also completed one or more of LAW 303 Criminal Procedure, LAW 309 Law of Evidence and LAW 322 Family Law.

Other Courses

Students registered in Law Centre are not permitted to register in any other course in addition to LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Term.

Deferred Coursework or Academic Standing Issues

Students with deferred work from a prior term, or who are not in good academic standing when the term begins, will be required to withdraw from Law Centre. In extenuating circumstances, permission to continue may be granted by the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Term Dates

The Law Centre is a term program with a credit value of 7.5 units. It is scheduled from the first day of term to the end of the fourth month of term. The end date does not coincide with the end of classes or the end of the exam period.

Review the For Law Students section of the Law Centre website for an understanding of the time commitment required.

Attendance

The Law Centre term begins with an intensive orientation period that runs for the first four weeks of term in the law school. Full-time attendance during these four weeks of orientation is required. Permission to miss a class/session will only be granted for reasons of accommodation or in other limited circumstances. Students with questions about this requirement, or who are seeking accommodation should contact the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the Director of the Law Centre

Waitlist

14 seats are available in the Law Centre in each of the fall term and the spring term. A waitlist will be created for each term, and maintained by Law Student Services. Qualified students who participate in the lottery but do not obtain a place in the Law Centre will be automatically waitlisted in the term for which they balloted and may also upon request (see question 4 on ballot) be added to the waitlist of the other term. Students who miss the lottery deadline will be added to the bottom of the waitlist(s) of their choice on a first come first served basis, regardless of their year of study. Students who obtain a place in the Law Centre will not be placed on the waitlist for the term for which they did not ballot. These students may however, request to be added to the waitlist after the lottery results are released but will be given lowest priority.

The Faculty of Law reserves the right to exercise an overriding discretion in regard to the interpretation and application of all priority rules.

LAW 349 Business Law Clinic (BLC)

Business Law Clinic (BLC), LAW 349, brings together a dynamic combination of senior law students, community-based entrepreneurs and innovative businesses owners. The BLC can provide legal information about issues that are important to small businesses. As the owners and law students work together, they learn that a venture's path to success is greatly assisted when owners consult with legal counselors in the initial development stage of the business. Typical legal issues faced by entrepreneurs or business owners are dealt with in this course, including the protection of ideas, business formats, bank or investor financing, product liability, commercial contracts and the selection of a lawyer.

LAW 315I Transsystemic Business Associations is a required pre/corequisite for LAW 349. Fourth-year JD/JID students who will be taking LAW 315I in spring 2024 are eligible to register in LAW 349 BLC in spring 2024 if space is available.

LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic (ELC)

The Environmental Law Clinic (ELC), LAW 353, is the Faculty's foundational environmental clinical course. Students receive supervised experience working for conservation, community and First Nation clients.

The class will meet weekly for a 3-hour seminar in which legal skills and professional responsibility issues are learned and discussed. LAW 353 is offered every term and has a cap of ten to twelve students. Students can register for LAW 353 ELC in Online Tools on their registration day. LAW 353 may be taken for 1.5 units or, with the prior permission of both the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the instructor, for 2.0 units per term. See information below regarding restrictions on taking LAW 353 ELC twice.

LAW 353 ELC is a required prerequisite for LAW 353A ELC Intensive, offered in spring 2024. See the section below.

LAW 353A Environmental Law Centre Clinic (ELC) Intensive

Lottery Deadline: Tuesday, June 6, 2023 at 12:00 noon PT

The LAW 353A ELC Intensive Ballot can be found on the law registration webpage

This offering is available to eligible second-year and fourth-year JD/JID students only.

LAW 353A ELC Intensive will be offered in spring 2024. This course is for students that have completed LAW 353 ELC in a previous term, and provides a further opportunity to engage in public interest environmental lawyering in a supervised clinical setting working in a team environment and on multiple client projects. Students provide legal information and capacity to environmental, community and Indigenous organizations; and develop case and file management, client counselling, advocacy, and legal research and writing skills. Students meet with ELC staff and other students on a weekly basis, contribute to case development, and deliver client-centred projects on multiple files.

Eligibility and Admission to ELC Intensive

Admission to LAW 353A Environmental Law Centre Clinic (ELC) Intensive in spring term 2024 will be determined by lottery. In addition, all interested students are required to contact course instructor Professor Deborah Curran (dlc@uvic.ca) in advance to express interest and discuss the ELC Intensive course requirements. There are six places available in ELC Intensive in spring 2024.

Registration in ELC Intensive counts towards the requirements of the Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability. See the law course registration webpage for information about the Concentration.

Lottery Deadline

Submit your ballot by email to law.studentservices@uvic.ca by no later than Tuesday, June 6, 2023 at 12:00 noon PT. In your email subject line, type "BALLOT LAW 353A ELC Intensive".

Lottery Results

Participating students will be advised of the results of the lottery within a few days of the ballot deadline, and prior to the first day of registration in June.

Required Prerequisite Course

LAW 353 Environmental Law Centre Clinic is a required prerequisite course for LAW 353A ELC Intensive. Students who are not currently registered in LAW 353 in summer 2023 and have not successfully completed LAW 353 prior to balloting must ensure they register in ELC in fall term 2023.

Registration

Students who ballot successfully will be manually registered in LAW 353A ELC Intensive (2.0 units) in spring term 2024 by Law Student Services staff. Students will also be manually registered in LAW 353 ELC (1.5 units) in fall 2023 if they have not completed LAW 353 in a previous term.

The Faculty of Law reserves the right to exercise an overriding discretion in regard to the interpretation and application of all priority rules.

LAW 353 Environmental Law Centre Clinic and LAW 349 Business Law Clinic Restrictions

The course descriptions for LAW 349 and LAW 353 indicate that, with the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the instructor, students may enroll in either of these courses twice. However, you must not register in LAW 349 or LAW 353 for a second time without prior approval of both the Associate Dean and the Instructor. Such approval is highly exceptional and will only be granted if there is space available in the course at the beginning of a term. That is, students who have not yet had an opportunity to take the course will have priority.

Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability

The concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability will provide students with the opportunity to immerse themselves in environmental law and sustainability, and to use their legal knowledge in the direct service of real clients pursuing a range of interests aimed at environmental protection. Students who complete the eight required courses and electives will receive a notation on their transcript. For details, please see the program information that will be posted with the 2023-2024 materials on the law faculty website:

<https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/index.php>.

Co-op

Due to the structured nature of the JD/JID curriculum, students in the JD/JID program are not eligible to fully enroll in the Co-op program at this time.

JD/JID students may apply for ad hoc co-op postings in summer, or in terms when no required JD/JID courses are being offered. In 2023-24, required transsystemic courses are offered for second and fourth-year students in both fall and spring terms, and for third-year JD/JID students in fall term.

Course Registration

Authorization to Register

Students are authorized to register for courses according to their progress in their law program (i.e. second, third or fourth year). Third and fourth-year students have priority access to upper-year courses and register earlier on the first day of registration than second-year JD/JID students.

For course registration purposes, a fourth-year student will have completed the third year of the JD/JID before Winter Session 2023 (i.e. September 2023), a third-year student will have completed the second year of the JD/JID program before September 2023, and a second-year student will have completed first year before the start of the Winter Session 2023 (i.e., September 2023).

Students are authorized to register in June for the entire Winter Session 2023-2024 (fall term 2023 and spring term 2024). Ensure that you register for both terms on your authorized date of registration.

Important note regarding required transsystemic courses:

Prior to June 13, JD/JID students will be registered in their required 2023-24 courses by Law Student Services.

Second-year students will be registered in:

- LAW 105I Transsystemic Contracts - year-long course, 2.5 units TBC (1.25 units/term)
- LAW 109 Torts - year-long course, 2.0 units (1.0 unit/term)
- LAW 301I Transsystemic Administrative Law - fall term 2023, 3.0 units

Third-year students will be registered in:

- LAW 350I Indigenous Field Study Level I - spring term 2024, 7.5 units

Fourth-year students will be registered in:

- LAW 450I Indigenous Field Study Level II - fall term 2023, 7.5 units
- LAW 315I Transsystemic Business Associations - spring term, 2.5 units

Students must then register themselves for the balance of their second, third and fourth year courses on their designated registration time.

UVic's Registration Process

The registration process is managed by the UVic Registrar's Office.

Detailed registration instructions are on the How to Register for Courses webpage. Helpful video tutorials are posted. Please review the information carefully.

This guide highlights certain registration aspects of note to law students but does not otherwise include instructions.

Important tips:

- Time tickets with your registration date and time will be emailed on 1 June. If you don't receive one, email Yvonne Lawson at lawmaass@uvic.ca.
- View your registration status to ensure your registration dates are correct and you have no holds on your account due to fees owing.
- Law courses have caps and limited spaces. Be prepared and register promptly at your designated date and time.
- Anecdotally, the Plan Ahead "Build a Course Plan" tool is recommended, it can be found in Online Tools. Use caution when courses have multiple sections, using the CRN rather than the course number is advised.

Proxy Registration

If you have a commitment that conflicts with your registration time (e.g. air travel, work responsibilities, unreliable internet) you are responsible for finding a trusted friend or relative to register you using your Online Tools account. As a precaution, you may wish to contact Yvonne Lawson (lawmaass@uvic.ca) to provide the person's name and confirm that your personal registration situation may be discussed in the event that they experience registration issues, i.e. your proxy may contact Yvonne directly for assistance.

Registration Holds or Blocks

View your registration status to ensure you have no holds on your record that will prevent you from registering.

There is a strict University of Victoria policy that if you owe any fees or fines you will be blocked from registration. This includes tuition, ancillary fees, co-op work term fees, library fines and parking tickets.

Faculty of Law staff cannot override Accounting registration holds. If you do have outstanding fees, settle your account quickly. It can take 48 hours for payments to be processed and have the block removed by Accounting. Settling an overdue account one day before registration may not allow enough time to remove the hold.

For inquiries regarding fee-related blocks to your account contact UVic Accounting at tuition@uvic.ca, 250.721.7032 or toll free at 1.800.663.5260. Detailed information is available from UVic's Tuition Office.

Course Waitlists

If you add yourself to waitlists during registration, be sure to monitor your waitlist status thereafter. See details, including useful video tutorials in What happens if I'm on a Waitlist?

CAUTION - Registration Offers and Deadlines:

- Registration offers will be sent to your Preferred Email address.
- Registration offers are sent once per day at 1:00 pm PT (excepting weekends and stat holidays).
- Note the offer expiry date and time, you will have 47 hours to respond to waitlist offers prior to the start of term.
- When term begins, the offer expiry will reduce to 23 hours.
- If you don't respond by the deadline you will be dropped from the waitlist.
- If you miss the deadline and are dropped from the waitlist, you may waitlist yourself a second time. Unfortunately, you will have lost your priority and will be at the end of the waitlist. There are no exceptions to this rule so respond to offers quickly.

Registration and Waitlist Combined Limit

Law students may be waitlisted and registered in a combined total of 10.0 units per term. 8.5 units is the maximum registered units permitted and an additional 1.5 units is given to allow waitlist flexibility. This means students registered in 8.5 units may only waitlist for one additional 1.5-unit course. Or, for example, a student registered in 6.0 units may waitlist for up to 4.0 more units of courses (i.e. to a combined limit of 10.0 units). Plan your registration accordingly.

Course Offering Patterns

To assist you with longer term course planning, the Course Offering Patterns Guide is posted with the registration documents on the law website. The information in this document is offered solely to help students plan their overall programs and does not constitute a promise to offer a particular course in a particular term in future years.

Skills and Clinical Courses: Registration Restrictions

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic, Environmental Law Clinic, ELC Intensive, Field Courses and Intensive Term) or a skills course (Legal Skills, Advanced Legal Research and Writing or Advocacy). These courses have low caps and are in high demand and typically fill up on the first day of registration. Skill courses are generally only available in Winter Session however there are two or three clinical courses regularly offered in Summer Session.

Clinical Courses:

- LAW 349 Business Law Clinic (BLC) (fall and spring)
- LAW 350 Law Centre Clinical Law Term (fall and spring)
- LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic (ELC) (fall and spring)
- LAW 353A ELC Intensive (spring only)

Skills Courses:

- LAW 355 Legal Skills (fall and spring)
- LAW 388 ALRW (fall and spring); and
- LAW 356 Advocacy (fall and spring).

The total for the 2023-24 academic year is 206 seats; students are encouraged to register for only one of these courses to ensure that 206 students in any given year have the opportunity to take one of these skills courses.
