General Information

Due to COVID 19, all fall 2020 term courses will be conducted online. No classes will be held within the University of Victoria Fraser Law building. At the time of writing this guide, it is unknown whether the spring 2021 term will be conducted online, face to face, or a combination of both.

We acknowledge that these past few month have been challenging, and that students are returning to school carrying diverse forms of trauma. Our goal over the coming months is to work together as a community in new ways, given that we are all likely to be separated geographically for some time to come.

Plans are underway for the university to replace CourseSpaces with the learning management system Brightspace. All courses will be offered via UVic supported platforms such as Brightspace and Zoom and must be accessed using your NetLink ID (see Appendix). Information on the new system is not yet available (June 10, 2020) and will be shared when it is.

This planning guide includes all information pertaining to the JD program. It has also been revised to include information relevant for JD/JID students who, in 2020-2021 will be registering for their second or third year of the four-year Joint JD/JID program.

Law students can register for upper year courses in June 2020 through UVic My Page. If you are eligible for second or third year law you will be automatically authorized to register in the 2020-21 Winter Session.

All JD/JID students will be registering on the first day of the registration period, Tuesday, June 23, 2020, at either 8:00 am or 1:00 pm depending on their year of study.

This guide, accompanied by the faculty timetables, schedules and websites (Law and UVic) will give you detailed information on the course offerings, faculty regulations and important dates. Please review all information thoroughly prior to registration. Course information is here:

Planning and Course Selection

This section lists some general information about the Faculty of Law program requirements. A full description of program requirements is available in the UVic Calendar. It is your responsibility to ensure that your program meets the University of Victoria's and the Faculty of Law's requirements, regulations, policies and procedures as stated in the University of Victoria Calendar and on the faculty's website under Student and Academic Matters.

Unit Requirements for Each of Second, Third and Fourth Year

All full-time JD/JID students must take a minimum of 14.5 units to a maximum of 16.5 units in each academic year of their four-year program. The academic year usually consists of two winter-session terms (fall and spring).

Full-time students may not register in fewer than 7.0 units or more than 8.5 units in a term. Part-time students must take a minimum of 3.0 units each term. Students hoping to depart from these registration requirements must request permission from the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations (lawassoc@uvic.ca).

Workload

Students should expect to be assigned 20 to 30 pages of reading per scheduled class hour for each course. You can expect a weekly total of 300 to 500 pages of reading each week. Some readings are quick and easily understood and some will require a slow and detailed reading. There may also be differences in teaching styles, course materials and content, assigned readings and evaluation methods among sections of each course. Details about workload expectations and online components of each course will be made available in course descriptions and/or on associated CourseSpaces sites.

There will be adjustments to course expectations given the move to online learning, and the demands of both synchronous and asynchronous delivery. However, the reading expectation will remain firm.

Course Information and Counselling

The elective components in the upper years of the JD and JD/JID program require informed course counselling and course selection. Students may draw on the following resources when making course selection decisions:

- Course timetables and examination schedules
- Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)
- Course Offering Patterns Guide
- The Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations
- The Associate Dean, Administration and Research
- The Manager, Academic Administration and Student Services
- The Director, JID

- The Manager, Indigenous Initiatives
- Faculty members

Preliminary Course Information Summaries (PCIS)

For each course, a Preliminary Course Information Summary (PCIS) will be posted on the Faculty of Law website prior to registration: <http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/pcisindex.php>. PCIS are intended to help you with your course selection decisions. PCIS are to be used as a guideline only and are subject to change. Course descriptions will be posted on CourseSpaces and will be available to registered students at the start of term.

Course Prerequisites and Corequisites

Several upper-year law courses have required pre- or corequisite law courses. This should be considered during your course planning. Students must not register in courses for which they do not have the required pre- or corequisites. If you register in a course and are missing the required pre- or corequisites, you will not be permitted to remain in the course. The compulsory first-year law curriculum is considered to be a prerequisite for upper-year courses. Review the Course Prerequisites and Corequisites table within this guide.

Given that JD/JID students do not enroll in LAW 105I Transsystemic Contracts and LAW 109I Transsystemic Torts (LAW 109 Torts in 2020-2021) until the second year of their program, they will not be eligible to enroll in courses that list those as prerequisites and corequisites until their third year. Review the list of Upper-Year JD Courses Available to Second-Year JD/JID Students within this guide.

Examination Schedules

Examination schedules for fall 2020 and spring 2021 terms will be posted prior to registration beginning. This section of the guide will be updated at that time.

All fall 2020 examinations will be conducted online. At the time of writing this guide, it is unknown whether spring 2021 examinations will be conducted online or face to face.

It is the student's responsibility to not schedule travel or other commitments that would interfere with the fall and spring examination periods:

- Fall examinations: Monday, December 7 to Monday, December 21, 2020
- Spring examinations: Monday, April 12 to Monday, April 26, 2021

Cancellation or Rescheduling of Courses

Any course or program may be cancelled or rescheduled due to insufficient enrollment or other administrative circumstances. New course restrictions or prerequisites may also be imposed.

Enrollment Limitations

Courses and seminars have enrollment limitations that are listed under the heading "Cap" on the Course Schedules. The Faculty of Law reserves the right to place a cap on any course for pedagogical reasons or due to space limitations. Students should not expect course caps to be raised when courses are oversubscribed or because they are being offered online.

Compulsory Courses (Section Revised June 18)

In order to graduate, all students must successfully complete the Faculty's major paper requirement.

As outlined below, additional compulsory courses are required in each upper year of the JD/JID program.

In addition, JD/JID Students must successfully complete the compulsory upper-level courses:

- LAW 301I Transsystemic Administrative Law or LAW 301 The Administrative Law Process;
- LAW 315I Transsystemic Business Associations or ~~LAW 315 Business Associations~~; and
- LAW 360 Legal Ethics and Professionalism;
- or equivalent courses approved by the Associate Dean Academic and Student Relations in advance of students enrolling in the course as a means of satisfying the Federation of Law Societies of Canada's requirements.

Second Year (2L) Requirements

In 2020-2021, students in the second year of their JD/JID program (2L) are required to take the following courses:

Fall 2020

- LAW 105I Transsystemic Contracts (2.5 units) (full year course)
- LAW 395I Coast Salish Legal Studies & Language (2.0 units)

Spring 2021

- LAW 109 Torts (2.0 units)<sup>1</sup>

Students must also select additional upper-year courses for a combined total of 14.5-16.5 units for the year, with a combined total of 7.0-8.5 units for each term.

Third Year (3L) Requirements

In 2020-2021, students in the third year of their JD/JID program (3L) are required to take the following courses:

Fall 2020

- LAW 395I Coast Salish Legal Studies & Language (2.0 units)

Spring 2021

- LAW 350I Field School (7.5 units)

Students must also select additional upper-year courses for a combined total of 14.5-16.5 units for the year, with a combined total of 7.0-8.5 units for each term.

Students registered in LAW 350I are not permitted to register in any additional courses during spring 2021.

Review the Tentative JD/JID Required Course Offering Plan \(2018-2022\) within this document.

Major Research Paper Requirement

During the upper years of the program, all students must fulfill the “major research paper” requirement. A major research paper is a legal research paper of no fewer than 7,500 words (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) on an approved subject which counts for at least 50% of the grade in a course and on which the student achieves a minimum grade of 65%. The major research paper requirement may be satisfied by:

1. writing a major research paper in a course (where permitted by the instructor) under the Faculty regulations governing such papers; OR
2. successfully completing LAW 388 Advanced Legal Research and Writing; OR
3. writing a directed major research paper in LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing; OR
4. writing a major research paper in one of the two required field courses (LAW 350I and LAW 450I).

Faculty regulations governing major research papers are posted on the faculty website under Student and Academic Matters. The course syllabus will typically indicate the number of major research papers, if any, the instructor will be willing to supervise in that course.

LAW 390 Major Research Paper in a Course

- Students completing their major research paper within a course will also be registered in LAW 390 for the term in which they complete the paper. The LAW 390 registration is used for tracking and transcript purposes only and bears no unit value. (The student is already obtaining credit for the course in which the paper requirement is being fulfilled.)
- Students cannot register themselves for LAW 390; this must be done by a member of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations’ office upon submission of the appropriate documentation.
- In order to register for LAW 390, you must have your instructor sign a “Consent to Supervise LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing and/or LAW 390 Major Paper Within a Course” form or provide their consent by email and you must email the completed form to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations Assistant (lawada@uvic.ca). The form is available here: <https://www.uvic.ca/law/assets/docs/RegistrationPageDocs/390%20and%20399%20Registration%20Form.pdf>.
- The form must be submitted no later than the add/drop deadline for the particular term in which the LAW 390 paper is to be completed.

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing

LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing provides law students an opportunity to undertake substantial research and writing on a legal subject approved by a Faculty member who agrees to supervise the paper. The calendar description for LAW 399 is as follows:

(Units: 1.0-4.0) During either of the second or third years of a student’s program, a student may undertake a substantial research and writing project on a legal subject approved by a member of the Faculty of Law who agrees to supervise the project. With the approval of the Dean or the Dean’s nominee: (1) a student may be awarded credit for two separate supervised research papers provided that the total credit does not exceed 4 units and each paper is started and completed in separate terms; (2) this course may be extended over two terms; or (3) if this course is to be taken for 1 unit only.

The following guidelines apply to LAW 399 paper proposals.

- Students are generally expected to satisfy their LAW 390 Major Paper Requirement in a regular course offering rather than applying for LAW 399.
- An exception can be made where LAW 399 offers a student an opportunity to complete an original research and writing project, of publishable quality, where the subject matter of the paper is such that there is not a course-based opportunity to complete this work.
- Students are strongly advised to seek Faculty Member approval for a LAW 399 well in advance. Faculty Members may be approached by students about supervising a LAW 399 one to two terms in advance.
- Faculty Members are generally not available to supervise LAW 399 papers in their non-teaching term. In particular, there are limited opportunities to write LAW 399 papers in the summer term.
- Sessional and adjunct instructors do not normally supervise LAW 399 papers.
- The availability of LAW 399 is subject to the agreement of a supervising Faculty Member. Whether, and under what circumstances, a Faculty member agrees to supervise a LAW 399 is ultimately subject to the discretion of the supervising Faculty Member.
- Students should keep in mind that a LAW 399 paper is a major undertaking. A LAW 399 paper worth 1.5 units will be analogous to the time requirements of a 1.5 unit course.

LAW 399 Registration

- Students cannot register themselves for LAW 399; this must be done by a member of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations' office upon submission of the appropriate documentation.
- In order to register for LAW 399, you must have your instructor sign a "Consent to Supervise LAW 399 Supervised Research and Writing and/or LAW 390 Major Paper Within a Course" form or provide their consent by email and you must email the completed form to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations Assistant (lawada@uvic.ca). The form is available here: <https://www.uvic.ca/law/assets/docs/RegistrationPageDocs/390%20and%20399%20Registration%20Form.pdf>.
- The form must be submitted no later than the add/drop deadline for the particular term in which the LAW 399 paper is to be completed.
- The approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations is needed if LAW 399 is to be completed for only 1.0 unit. A LAW 399 paper that is completed for only 1.0 unit of credit and that has fewer than 7,500 words does not meet the Faculty's major paper requirement.
- Where a student is seeking to complete a LAW 399 in a topic that could be addressed within course work, Faculty are encouraged to consult with the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.
- In rare occasions due to exceptional circumstances, the course may be extended over two terms with prior written approval of the supervising professor and the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Successful completion of a supervised research paper in LAW 399 will satisfy the requirements of the major research paper regulations provided the paper is no fewer than 7,500 words in length (exclusive of footnotes and bibliography) and the student receives a grade of 65% or better on the paper.

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law

LAW 343 Contemporary Issues in Law is a course that usually has multiple sections. Each section is a different topic with a different schedule. There is only one section for each topic. Students may take more than one LAW 343 course during their law degree. Not all Law 343 courses will be available to 2nd year JD/JID students given prerequisites. Please check the course PCIS.

Skills and Clinical Courses

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are encouraged to take courses with considerable experiential content. For example, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic or Environmental Law Clinic) or a skills course (Advocacy, Legal Skills or Advanced Legal Research and Writing). For detailed information about clinical courses see the section on Term and Clinical Programs below. All fall 2020 clinical courses be conducted online. At the time of writing this guide, it is unknown whether spring 2021 clinical courses will be conducted online, face to face, or a combination of both.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The three skills courses are in high demand and are traditionally oversubscribed. Students interested in taking these courses are highly encouraged to register in one of Advocacy, Legal Skills or ALRW in the 2020-2021 academic year due to limited spaces and high demand.

LAW 365 Legal Mooting

At the time of writing this guide, it is not yet known which moots, due to the pandemic, will proceed in 2020-21 and in which we will participate. A separate 2020-21 mooting document will be posted as this information becomes available.

Students are eligible to compete for moots once they have completed any applicable first-year prerequisites. Additionally, students must be available to meet with their team in both fall and spring terms, and, therefore, cannot be enrolled in a field course (i.e., LAW 350I and 450I). For these reasons, JD/JID students will only be able to participate in moots during the second year of their program.

JD/JID students will generally be eligible to compete for the following moots (if offered)

The Bowman National Tax Moot	1.5 units
The Canadian Client Consultation Competition	1.5 units
The Fox Intellectual Property Moot	1.5 units
The Gale Cup	1.5 units
The Jessup International Law Moot	2.0 units
The Kawaskimhon Moot	1.5 units
The Western Canada Mock Trial (McIntyre-Sopinka)	1.5 units
The Willms and Shier Environmental Law Moot	1.5 units
The Wilson Moot	1.5 units

Selection for Mooting Teams

Selection for mooting teams is by competition, which occurs in late September. Students cannot register for LAW 365 Legal Mooting unless they are selected to participate in a moot through the selection process. Students should therefore register in a full course load in June, and drop a course in spring term if they are selected. In any given year, it is possible that the Faculty will not participate in one or more of the above moots.

Researcher Position

Some moots permit a student researcher position. Researchers earn slightly fewer units than students who act as counsel (typically 1.0 unit), and do not normally travel with the team to attend the moot. Selection for researcher positions will take place in September.

LAW 389 Appeal: Review of Current Law and Law Reform Law Journal

LAW 389 is a year-long course worth 2.0 units. Students may choose to be registered for 1.0 unit in the fall and 1.0 unit in the spring or 2.0 units in the spring term. It is not possible to register for the 2.0 units in the fall.

Given the requirements of field courses in third and fourth year (i.e., LAW 350I and 450I), LAW 389 Appeal will only be open to JD/JID students in the second year of their program. Students must have successfully completed the first year of their program, and LAW 389 is a year-long course requiring registration in both fall and spring terms.

The deadline to apply for Appeal in 2020-2021 was in March 2020. Students seeking information may email the editors at appeal@uvic.ca. Specific online meeting times for this course may be established in consultation, prior to the start of term.

LAW 352 Exchange Term

Students are encouraged to consider participating in an exchange term with one of UVic Law's exchange partners. Exchange terms are evaluated on a pass/fail basis, and are in most situations, 7.5 units of block credit. The process for applying for an exchange term in 2020-2021 took place in February 2020.

Due to COVID 19, all outgoing fall 2020 exchanges have been cancelled. At the time of writing this guide, it is not yet known whether spring 2021 exchanges will proceed.

See details with respect to exchange opportunities here:

<https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/exchangeterms/index.php>. Any and all questions, including what can and cannot be combined with an exchange term, should be directed to the Assistant to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations (lawada@uvic.ca).

Courses in Other Faculties at the University of Victoria

After first year, a student may take a maximum of 3.0 units worth of courses in other faculties within the university for credit toward their JD/JID degree. All students must obtain the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations as well as the instructor of the course in advance of registering for the course. If the course is graduate level, the student must also meet the admissions standards of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and obtain the approval of the Dean of Graduate Studies.

Students may be asked to justify to the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations how the course fits with their JD/JID program.

Students taking courses in other faculties should be aware that supplemental examinations are not offered by all departments. Furthermore, even where supplemental examinations are available, the student must have achieved a final grade of "E" (not "F"). If a law student received an "F" (0 to 49%) grade in a course outside the Faculty of Law and could not write a supplemental in that course, the student would not achieve standing in the Faculty of Law for that year.

More detailed information is posted on the Student and Academic Matters webpage:
<http://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/studentacademicmatters/index.php>.

Cross-Listed Courses

Each year, the Faculty of Law offers courses that are cross-listed with other faculties. Taking a cross-listed course can enrich a student's learning experience by adding an interdisciplinary dimension. The following courses will be offered in 2020-2021:

LAW	Cross List	Title	Instructor	Other Department	Law Cap	Term
343 A02	POLI 433/533	Pluralism and Political Authority	Eisenberg, Avigail	Political Science	6	Fall
343 A03	HSTR 519	Dispossession: A Legal History	Buck, Andrew	History	12	Fall
343 A04	PHIL 490/500	Self-determination of Peoples	Holder, Cindy	Philosophy	3	Fall
325	DR 516	Access to Justice	Lapper QC, Robert	Dispute Resolution	18	Spring
328	ES 419	Green Legal Theory	Mark Zion	Env. Studies	12	Spring

Term and Clinical Programs

Students may consider taking a term or clinical program in their third or fourth year. The rationale for the development of the clinical and term programs is to provide students with an opportunity to apply their knowledge of the law, to develop an understanding of legal processes, to develop lawyering skills and to provide an opportunity to achieve some degree of specialization in an intense and closely supervised format. Students may not enrol in more than two term programs. Except in unusual and compelling circumstances, students who enrol in a term program are not permitted to enrol in other courses during that term without the authorization of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations.

Unless otherwise indicated, all fall 2020 clinical terms or programs will be conducted online. At the time of writing this guide, it is not yet known how spring 2021 will be conducted.

LAW 350 Clinical Law Term - The Law Centre

The Law Centre will not be available to JD/JID students in 2020-2021 due to conflicting required coursework. See Compulsory Courses within this guide.

In this full-time full term clinical course students will receive training in interviewing, counselling, negotiation, mediation, advocacy before Provincial Court and administrative tribunals, and drafting. They will represent clients who present with problems related to criminal law, corrections law, family law, human rights law, and a variety of civil law issues. Students will develop awareness of legal and social problems of economically disadvantaged, significantly ill, liberty challenged, Indigenous and aged members of society.

LAW 349 Business Law Clinic (BLC)

The Business Law Clinic will not be available to JD/JID students in 2020-2021.

Business Law Clinic (BLC), LAW 349, brings together a dynamic combination of senior law students, community-based entrepreneurs and innovative businesses owners. The BLC can provide legal information about issues that are important to small businesses. As the owners and law students work together, they learn that a venture's path to success is greatly assisted when owners consult with legal counselors in the initial development stage of the business. Typical legal issues faced by entrepreneurs or business owners are dealt with in this course, including the protection of ideas, business formats, bank or investor financing, product liability, commercial contracts and the selection of a lawyer.

LAW 315 or Law 315I Transsystemic Business Associations is a required pre- or corequisite for LAW 349.

LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic (ELC)

JD/JID students are permitted to register in the ELC in 2020-2021.

The Environmental Law Clinic (ELC), LAW 353, is the Faculty's foundational environmental clinical course. Students receive supervised experience working for conservation, community and First Nation clients.

LAW 353 is offered every term and has a cap of ten to twelve students per term. Students can register for LAW 353 ELC via My Page on their registration day. LAW 353 may be taken for 1.5 units or, with the prior permission of both the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the instructor, for 2.0 units per term. See information below regarding LAW 386A and LAW 386B and also restrictions relating to taking ELC twice.

LAW 349 Business Law Clinic and LAW 353 Environmental Law Centre Clinic Restrictions

The course descriptions for LAW 349 and LAW 353 indicate that, with the approval of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations and the instructor, students may enroll in either of these courses twice. However, you must not register in LAW 349 or LAW 353 for a second time without prior approval of both the Associate Dean and the Instructor. Such approval is highly exceptional and will only be granted if there is space available in the course at the beginning of a term. That is, students who have not yet had an opportunity to take the course will have priority.

LAW 386A ELC Intensive: Legal Skills and Sustainability and LAW 386B ELC Intensive: Problem Solving

Neither LAW 386A ELC Intensive: Legal Skills and Sustainability nor Law 386B ELC Intensive: Problem Solving will be offered in 2020-2021.

ELC Intensive is a public interest environmental law clinical program in which students are supervised as they assist conservation, community and Indigenous clients with legal representation, advocacy services and advice. Students receive training in client interviewing and counselling, file management, professional responsibility and litigation practice, and are introduced to a variety of sustainability topics.

LAW 353 ELC and LAW 329 Environmental Law are both required pre- or corequisites for these intensive courses. Students are encouraged to take LAW 329 and LAW 353 in a term prior to taking LAW 386A or 386B.

International Law Term

Unfortunately, due to the COVID 19 pandemic, the proposed International Law term proposed for spring 2021 will not be offered.

Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability

The concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability will provide students with the opportunity to immerse themselves in environmental law and sustainability, and to use their legal knowledge in the direct service of real clients pursuing a range of interests aimed at environmental protection. Students who complete the eight required courses and electives will receive a notation on their transcript. For details, please see the program information that will be posted with the 2020-2021 materials on the law faculty website: <https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/index.php>.

Co-op

Due to the four year structure of the JD/JID program students in the JD/JID program are not eligible to enroll in the Co-op program.

Course Registration

Authorization to Register

Students are authorized to register for courses according to their progress in their law program (i.e. second, third or fourth year). Third year students have priority access to upper year courses and register earlier on the first day of registration than second year students.

For course registration purposes, a third year student will have completed the second year of the JD/JID program before the start of Winter Session 2020 (i.e., September 2020). A second year student will have completed first year before the start of the Winter Session 2020 (i.e., September 2020).

Students are authorized to register in June for the entire Winter Session 2020-2021 (fall term 2020 and spring term 2021). Ensure that you register for both terms on your authorized date of registration.

JD/JID students will be registered in their required courses (i.e., LAW 105I, LAW 109I, LAW 350I, LAW 395I) by the team in the front office. Students must then register themselves for the balance of their second and third year courses.

Course Registration Dates

own eligibility and registration dates and times. To do this, after June 12 sign in to My Page, select the “Student Services” option from the left-hand column of the page, click on the “Registration” tab, choose the “Registration Status” option, select the term and click “Submit” to see your registration date and time and selected term. Click on the “Holds and Alerts” tab to see if there are any holds (tuition fees/academic standing). If the registration date or time is incorrect, contact Yvonne Lawson at lawmaass@uvic.ca well before the registration dates to allow time to fix the problem.

Registration via My Page: Instructions

Students register on-line via My Page. UVic course registration information is here: <http://www.uvic.ca/current-students/home/course-registration/register/index.php>.

For Quick Registration ensure that you know the CRNs (Course Reference Numbers) for the courses in which you will be registering. Prior to registration, the CRNs will be listed on the law course schedules in the column marked CRN. To register in courses, sign in to My Page, select the “Student Services” option from the left-hand column of the page, click on the “Registration” tab, choose “Add or Drop Classes,” select the term then type in the CRNs of your courses and click “Submit Changes” (this is described in more detail in the registration tutorial referred to above).

Do not use the Look Up Classes and Class Search options as it takes longer and is unnecessary given that the law schedule includes the CRNs. Also, the Class Search option sometimes confusingly indicates that a course is “closed” even though students may waitlist, if they wish, in the Add or Drop Classes area.

Proxy Registration: If you have a commitment that conflicts with your registration time (e.g. air travel, work responsibilities, unreliable internet) you are responsible for finding a trusted friend or relative to register you via your My Page account. As a precaution, you may wish to contact Yvonne Lawson (lawmaass@uvic.ca) to provide the person’s name and confirm that your personal registration situation may be discussed in the event that they experience registration issues, i.e. your proxy may contact Yvonne directly for assistance.

Registration Holds or Blocks

Check your student account in My Page to ensure that you have no holds on your record that will prevent you from registering (“Registration” tab, then check “Holds and Alerts”). Note that there is a strict University of Victoria policy that if you owe any fees or fines you will be blocked from registration. This includes tuition, ancillary fees, library fines and parking tickets. Students registered in courses in summer term 2020 are reminded that summer term tuition was due May 31, 2020. Faculty of Law staff cannot override Accounting registration blocks. Note that it can take 48 hours for payment to be processed and for the block to be removed by Accounting. Due to COVID 19, processing time may take longer. This means settling an overdue account one day before registration does not allow enough time. For inquiries regarding fee related blocks to your account contact UVic Accounting at tuition@uvic.ca, 250-721-7032 or toll free at 1-800-663-5260 More detailed information is here <http://www.uvic.ca/vpfo/accounting/services/tuition/index.php>.

Course Waitlists: How to Add, Drop and Maintain your Place

Information regarding managing waitlisted courses is here: <http://www.uvic.ca/current-students/home/course-registration/waitlist/index.php>.

CAUTION: Registration offers will be sent to your Preferred Email address. If you receive a registration offer, you must respond by the deadline specified in your offer or you will be dropped from the waitlist. To accept the offer, select “Register” from the Action drop-down menu and click “Submit Changes.” If you do not respond and are subsequently dropped from the waitlist, you may waitlist yourself a second time. Unfortunately, you will have lost your priority and will be added to the end of the waitlist.

Registration Offers - Durations: During the summer months, you will have one week to respond to registration offers for both fall and spring courses. In September, this will drop to a 24-hour response time for fall term courses. In January, the response time will drop to 24 hours for spring term courses. Check your offer dates and times very carefully.

Registration and Waitlist Combined Limit

Law students may be waitlisted and registered in a combined total of 10.0 units per term. 8.5 units is the maximum registered units permitted and an additional 1.5 units is given to allow waitlist flexibility. This means students registered in 8.5 units may only waitlist for one additional 1.5 unit course, or a student registered in 6.0 units may waitlist for up to 4.0 more units of courses. Plan your registration accordingly.

Checking Course Enrollment and Waitlist Numbers

To view whether space is available in any given course, go to the UVic Dynamic Schedule webpage (https://www.uvic.ca/BAN2P/bwckschd.p\_disp\_dyn\_sched).

CAUTION: In viewing the Registration Availability table for any given course, you must look at the Waitlist Seats row as well as the Seats row. The table may indicate that one or more seats are remaining, however if there are any waitlisted students they will be first in line to receive offers for those empty seats. You will not be able to register in the empty seats ahead of them; you will be offered the option to waitlist if you try to register.

Course Offering Patterns Guide

To assist you with longer term course planning, the Course Offering Patterns Guide is posted with the registration documents on the law website <https://www.uvic.ca/law/jd/courseregistration/index.php>. The information in this document is offered solely to help students plan their overall programs and does not constitute a promise to offer a particular course in a particular term in future years.

Clinical and Skills Courses: Registration Restrictions

As a matter of Faculty policy, students are urged to take a clinical course (Law Centre, Business Law Clinic, Environmental Law Clinic, ELC Intensive, Field Courses and Intensive Term) or a skills course: (Legal Skills, Advanced Legal Research and Writing or Advocacy). These courses have low caps and are in high demand and typically fill up on the first day of registration. Skill courses are generally only available in Winter Session however there are two or three clinical courses regularly offered in Summer Session.

Due to COVID 19, offerings of clinical and skills may be further restricted.

Clinical Courses:

The total for the 2020-2021 academic year is 102 seats; students are encouraged to register for only one of these courses to ensure that as many students as possible have the opportunity to take one of these skills courses.
