LAW 386A ELC Intensive: Legal Skills and Sustainability
Fall Term 2018
Ballot and Registration Information

Lottery Deadline: Monday, June 11, 2018, at 12:00 noon, to the designated drop box in the Fraser Building or by email to Cheryl Lawrence at lawada@uvic.ca

Please read this information before submitting your ballot.

Eligibility and admission to ELC Intensive

Admission to LAW 386A Environmental Law Centre Clinic Intensive: Legal Skills and Sustainability in fall term 2018 will be determined by lottery. In addition, all interested students are required to contact course instructor Professor Deborah Curran (dlc@uvic.ca) in advance to express interest and discuss the ELC Intensive course requirements. There are seven places available in ELC Intensive in fall 2018.

Registration in ELC Intensive counts towards the requirements of the Concentration in Environmental Law and Sustainability. See the law course registration homepage for more information about the Concentration.

This course is formerly known as LAW 353A. Students with credit in LAW 353A may not ballot for LAW 386A.

Lottery deadline

Ballots must be submitted to the designated drop box in the Fraser Building by no later than Monday, June 11, 2018 at 12:00 noon. If you are off campus this summer, submit your ballot by email to Cheryl Lawrence lawada@uvic.ca prior to the deadline.

Lottery results

Participating students will be advised of the results of the lottery the week of June 11. On line course registration begins the following week.

Pre- or corequisite courses

LAW 329 Environmental Law AND LAW 353 Environmental Law Clinic are both required pre- or corequisite courses for LAW 386A. Students that have not successfully completed either or both of these courses prior to September 2018 must ensure they meet the requirements in their fall term 2018 course registration.

Registration

Students who ballot successfully will be manually registered in LAW 386A ELC Intensive (2.0 units) in fall term 2018 by front office staff. Students will also be manually registered in LAW 329 Environmental Law (1.5 units) and/or LAW 353 ELC (1.5 units) as required if they have not completed either or both course in a previous term.
