COURSE DESCRIPTION

Law 307B focuses on the Supreme Court of British Columbia, the Supreme Court Rules and the structure of civil proceedings. Major issues will be canvassed including professional responsibility and access to justice within the context of the litigation process. The course will be structured around the preparation of materials necessary to both prosecute and defend civil proceedings.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

1. Develop the skills and understanding needed to draft basic civil litigation documents and conduct a civil proceeding, including the commencement of proceedings, interlocutory applications, case management, discovery, the conduct of a trial and settlement; and

2. Analyze principles and objectives associated with the civil litigation process, including access to justice, alternative dispute resolution and professional responsibility.

TEACHING METHODOLOGY

This course will be a combination of lectures, group study and discussion. Lectures will outline a framework for assignment completion and consideration of the assigned readings. Class discussions will be directed towards the application of knowledge derived from the readings and lectures. Expectations: attend class, read and consider the assigned materials before coming to class, identify and discuss relevant issues raised by the readings.

EXPECTED EVALUATION METHOD

1. Midterm exam 20-30%
2. Group assignment 20-30%
