

SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS WITHIN THE FACULTY OF LAW

The Faculty of Law has a policy to accommodate students with special needs or other learning requirements.

If you have any special needs or learning requirements that may require accommodations and that the Faculty of Law should be aware of, please provide the information requested below and return the completed form to the office of the Associate Dean, Academic and Student Relations, as soon as possible.

Every effort will be made, consistent with our policies, to accommodate you and to meet your learning circumstances.

Please note that your information will be revealed only to those people directly involved in processing your request and we will assure confidentiality as far as possible.

Your Name: _____

Please fully describe your special needs or learning requirements and the accommodations you would like to receive. Please note that appropriate supporting documentation is required.
