

APPLICATION FORM
GLADYS NIPP & STEPHEN MAH FAMILY AWARD

AWARD CRITERIA

This $1000 award is given to one or more undergraduate or graduate UVic student(s) in any discipline who are utilizing and/or enhancing UVic Libraries' Chinese-Canadian collections for the purposes of research, outreach initiatives (including both physical and/or digital exhibitions), or oral history projects.

All eligible applicants must submit a brief proposal (maximum 500 words) outlining how using UVic Libraries' Chinese-Canadian collections will assist in their work and research. Be specific: name what collections will be used and why, in addition to how the award will be used. Please attach this research proposal to this application form.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Surname:

Given Name(s):

Mailing Address:

Email:

V Number:

EDUCATION INFORMATION

Faculty:

Department:

Degree:

Expected Graduating Year

How did you hear about the William Petrie
Graduate Student
Library Scholarship?

Digital Slides

Poster

Social Media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter)

Friend(s)

Professor(s)

Word of mouth

If my submission is selected as a winning entry, I grant permission for it to be published by UVic Libraries and uploaded into UVicSpace, UVic Libraries' institutional repository.

Yes

No

Signature

Date

Please and complete this form, along with the required research proposal, as a single PDF by May 31st to libraryscholarships@uvic.ca.