Regular, Full Time Librarian Appointment

Description
The Law & Business Librarian is a member of University of Victoria Libraries and is situated in the Diana M. Priestly Law Library. The position is responsible for learning and research assistance, collection development, and embedded course instruction and curriculum engagement in the Faculty of Law and in the Peter B. Gustavson School of Business.

• Collaborates with colleagues to plan and deliver in-depth, high-quality service in satisfaction of the research and learning needs of students and faculty in the Law and Business Faculties.
• Collaborates with other law librarians to plan and deliver legal research and law library research instruction to Faculty of Law classes, as required; and plans and delivers library research instruction to Faculty of Business classes, as required.
• Engages actively with the law school community and Faculty of Business; and, as appropriate, attends meetings of Law Faculty Council and Business Faculty Council.
• Participates in a variety of activities including, in-depth research collaborations, and reference consultations, as appropriate.
• Prepares and maintains research guides to support learning needs within the law school community and Business Faculty.
• Assists with selection and evaluation of print, electronic, and media resources to support and evolve the law library collection and research and learning tools; and, applies knowledge of information resources in business to guide the development and assessment of the business collections. In regard to the law and business acquisitions subject areas, works closely with the AUL Learning & Research Resources and the Acquisitions & Electronic Resources Librarian.
• Depending on Faculty of Law need, may instruct credit courses, particularly in legal research and writing, including syllabus design, assignment development and evaluation, course delivery, and grading in compliance with Faculty of Law grading policies.
• Provides liaison services to Faculty of Law and Faculty of Business clinical and research centre programs as assigned.
• Collaborates with colleagues to develop outreach with the broader business, legal, and business and legal information communities, with the goal of providing collaborative and innovative services within the Libraries and Faculties of Law and Business.
• Contributes to Law Library communications initiatives, including website and social media.
• Participates in UVic Libraries committee and project work as assigned.
• Other duties as assigned.

Reporting
The Law & Business Librarian reports to the Associate University Librarian, Law. Works collaboratively with other librarians and staff in the Law Library and across the University of Victoria Libraries.

Qualifications
• Master’s degree from an accredited school of library science, or a Master’s or higher degree in another discipline with expertise and excellence in professional practice relevant to the position if the candidate agrees to complete a MLS from an accredited school of library science before the end of the probationary period.
• A degree in Law from an accredited program is strongly preferred for this position.
• A degree or significant experience in business, business information, or competitive intelligence is preferred for this position.
• Demonstrated knowledge about Canadian legal resources and instruction in legal research methods and law library use, such as may be gained in a law library in the academic, law firm, or other law sector legal information.
environment is preferred; and, optimally, research expertise with business literature and resources, including for market and industry analysis, and including specialized databases and datasets such as may be gained in an academic or professional business program is preferred.

- Demonstrated experience in project planning and project management.
- A commitment to professional ethics and continuous learning and professional and personal development.
- Ability to learn and use new instructional technologies.
- Ability to work in an engaged, proactive, and innovative way in an embedded library environment.
- Ability to work collegially and collaboratively in a rapidly changing environment, and superior interpersonal and communication skills.

FOR A FULL POSITION DESCRIPTION SEE:  https://www.uvic.ca/library/use/info/jobs/index.php

Salary and Benefits
Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience. A comprehensive benefits package is provided.

Faculty, Librarians, and Archivists at the University of Victoria are governed by the provisions of the Collective Agreement Collective Agreement. Members are represented by the University of Victoria Faculty Association (www.uvicfa.ca). Standards of performance are assessed as set out in the Evaluation Policy for Librarians.

The University of Victoria
The University of Victoria is consistently ranked in the top tier of Canada’s research-intensive universities. Vital impact drives the UVic sense of purpose. As an internationally renowned teaching and research hub, we tackle essential issues that matter to people, places and the planet. Situated in the Pacific Rim, our location breeds a profound passion for exploration. Defined by its edges, this extraordinary environment inspires us to defy boundaries, discover, and innovate in exciting ways. It’s different here, naturally and by design. We live, learn, work and explore on the edge of what’s next—for our planet and its peoples. Our commitment to research-inspired dynamic learning and vital impact make this Canada’s most extraordinary environment for discovery and innovation. Experience the edge of possibilities for yourself.

UVic is committed to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion in our living, learning and work environments. In pursuit of our values, we seek members who will work respectfully and constructively with differences and across levels of power. We actively encourage applications from members of groups experiencing barriers to equity. Read our full equity statement here: www.uvic.ca/equitystatement.

Persons with disabilities, who anticipate needing accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, may contact Faculty Relations and Academic Administration in the Office of the VP Academic and Provost at FRrecruit@uvic.ca. Any personal information provided will be maintained in confidence.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; in accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Please indicate in your application package if you are a Canadian citizen or permanent resident.

Please submit a cover letter, CV, and names of three (3) references by noon, Friday, April 26, 2019 to: Jonathan Bengtson, University Librarian, University of Victoria Libraries ulo@uvic.ca

We thank all applicants in advance for their interest, however only those under consideration will be contacted.