

Indigenous Citizenship Declaration Policy

Eligibility Overview

HOW IS MY APPLICATION REVIEWED & ASSIGNED A DESIGNATION?

Designation	Policy Section	Examples
Affirmed	A Declaration is affirmed based on the Supporting Information provided in alignment with the Citizenship requirements of the Applicant's Nation, People or Community expressed and communicated in an Agreement with the University. (Section 16.01)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An Application satisfies the requirements for Supporting Information as established by an Agreement with an Indigenous Nation, People or Community.
Conditionally Affirmed	A Declaration is affirmed as truthful and accurate based on the Supporting Information provided in alignment with the Associated Procedures .	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> An Application satisfies the requirements for Supporting Information as established by an Agreement with an Indigenous Nation, People or Community.
Incomplete	A Declaration is missing information; and/or the Supporting Information is insufficient to demonstrate the truth and accuracy of the Declaration; and/or the Supporting Information does not meet the Citizenship requirements expressed and communicated by the Applicant's Nation, People or Community in an agreement with the University (Section 17.01)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There are mistakes in the Declaration or errors with the uploaded files—resubmission has been requested. The Supporting Information provided by a Conditionally Affirmed applicant does not meet new requirements set in an Agreement—resubmission /reapplication has been requested. Application has not been reviewed or has moved to an extended review process and is pending review. No Declaration has been provided by the Applicant.
Unaffirmable	A Declaration is beyond the scope of the definitions included in this Policy. (Section 17.02)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Declaration names a community beyond the scope of the Policy The Application contains information of a fraudulent nature

Eligible

Affirmed

Conditionally affirmed

Incomplete

Pending Resubmission

No application provided

Unaffirmable

