Common Questions

What is academic standing?

Academic standing is based on your sessional grade-point average \(GPA\) and determines your eligibility to register in a future session at UVic.

For each session, you will be assigned one of three academic standings: in good standing, university probation or required to withdraw.

When is academic standing assessed?

Starting at the end of each session, once all of your final grades have been submitted:

- Winter session (Sept - Apr) = end of April
- Summer session (May - Aug) = end of August

What courses are included in my sessional GPA?

All attempted courses in a session that have a unit value (excluding COM, F/X and N/X grades). Courses taken elsewhere will also be reviewed.

How do I find out my academic standing?

Your administrative transcript on My page will display both your sessional GPA and academic standing. Undergraduate Records will notify you via email if you are placed on university probation or required to withdraw from UVic.

How do I qualify to return to UVic after a requirement to withdraw?

You must complete both a mandatory withdrawal period and transfer credit courses with a minimum GPA (see blue box in next column for details).

What is SCART?

The Senate Committee on Admission, Reregistration and Transfer \(SCART\) meets monthly to review appeals from students who have documented grounds to appeal a requirement to withdraw.

What are considered grounds to appeal a requirement to withdraw?

Extenuating circumstances, as described in the Appealing Admission/Re-registration Decisions section of the academic calendar, that negatively impacted your academic performance for which you can provide supporting documentation.

In good standing

To remain in good academic standing, you must maintain a minimum sessional GPA of 2.00.

University probation

To clear university probation, you will need a minimum sessional GPA of 2.00 in your next registered session; otherwise, you will be required to withdraw from UVic.

If your next registered session is at another college or university, your GPA will be calculated using all transferrable courses attempted up until your return to UVic.

Required to withdraw

After a requirement to withdraw from the university, you must either qualify for reregistration or successfully appeal to SCART.

Upon being reinstated to UVic, you will be placed on University probation for your returning session and should consult with an academic adviser regarding your eligibility to be re-admitted to your previous program.

Qualify for reregistration

1. Complete the withdrawal period
 - 1st requirement to withdraw = 1 year
 - 2nd requirement to withdraw = 3 years
2. Complete 6.0 units of transferable, non-duplicate, non-mutually exclusive coursework at another college or university with a 3.0 (C+) GPA in all attempted courses
3. Apply via My UVic Application

Appeal to SCART

Before submitting a SCART appeal, you should:

- Contact your faculty's Undergraduate Records Officer to discuss your appeal options and eligibility
- Review the information provided by the UVic Ombudsperson detailing how to appeal a requirement to withdraw.

Getting Support

- Meet with an academic adviser to review your course selection and program requirements.
