SUMMER SESSION 2024
FULL-TIME LOAN & GRANT REQUIREMENTS

You must meet the following requirements:

✓ Study period start and end dates match those on your loan application.
For example: If you register for May through July courses you can only apply for a loan for those dates
OR if you register for June through August courses you can only apply for a loan for those dates. You cannot request funding for a month during which you are not registered.

AND

✓ Study period must be at least twelve weeks long, with no gaps in study longer than two weeks.

AND

✓ Undergraduate students must enroll in at least 4.5 units of credit or 3.0 for graduate students. Undergraduate students who have permanent disability status registered with their student loan provider are considered full-time at 3.0 units per term or 1.5 units for graduate students. If you have questions about your course load, please check with our office!

Duplicate (DU), Mutually Exclusive (MX), Waitlisted (WL) and Audited (AU) courses do not count towards your full-time enrollment.

The May 8 – July 25, June 6 – August 18, and May 8 – August 18 dates correspond with the drop down menu on the Student Aid BC loan application. For other start and end dates, please check with our office regarding your options. We may advise you to complete a reassessment in order to attach your summer studies onto an existing loan that is already in place for the current academic year. Please contact our office for more information.
Avoid future loan headaches

Contact the Student Awards & Financial Aid office to discuss your plans before dropping or changing any summer courses!

Things to consider before withdrawing from full-time studies:

1. Six months after withdrawing from full-time studies, the student becomes responsible for starting to repay outstanding loans and accrued interest.

2. Any loan or grant disbursements awarded for the current session are forfeited. In particular, the University will not confirm enrolment for individuals who are not full-time students.

3. If student loans and grants have already been released for the current term and a student subsequently withdraws, the provincial student loan authority may require that a portion be repaid.

If you do not qualify as a full-time student, you may be able to apply for PART-TIME LOAN OR GRANT FUNDING

Contact our office for more information.
