WORK STUDY JOB POSTING

JOB TITLE: ENGL5 - Project Coordinator: SpokenWeb

DEPARTMENT NAME: English

CONTACT NAME: Jentery Sayers

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Project Coordinator for SpokenWeb will collaborate with Jentery Sayers (English) and three research assistants (also in English) at the University of Victoria to describe, process, and share audio recordings of literary performances from the 20th century. A collaboration between 13 institutions in North America, the SpokenWeb project aims to develop approaches to literature, pedagogy, and digital media with diverse collections of sound recordings from across Canada.

This position is ideal for students interested in professional and public communications, cross-institutional collaboration, literary history, sound, and new media. The Project Coordinator will work mostly with people in English at UVic, but may also communicate with researchers at Concordia University, Simon Fraser University, University of Toronto, University of British Columbia, University of Alberta, University of Texas at Austin, and University of California, Davis, among others.

QUALIFICATIONS:

An interest in literature (especially American and Canadian literature of the 20th century), sound (including poetry readings), and/or digital media is the most important qualification for this position. Familiarity with audio production (including recording, editing, and/or analysis), web publishing (HTML, CSS), and/or version control (GitHub) is a bonus, as is intermediate (or higher) proficiency in French.
