2020/2021 WORK STUDY PROGRAM

JOB POSTING

JOB TITLE: HIST1 – Landscapes of Injustice Digital Communications Coordinator

DEPARTMENT NAME: History

CONTACT NAME: Michael Abe and Jordan Stanger-Ross

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Digital Communications Coordinator will assist the Landscapes of Injustice Project Manager, Michael Abe, in the outreach activities of the central office Landscapes of Injustice, a large, multi-institutional grant-funded research project. Specific responsibilities include: supporting, planning and implementing outreach programs and public research dissemination primarily via video stream or hybrid, live venue/live stream. Assist with the promotion and follow-up of public outreach programs that will consist of 1-2 per month, including video editing and production; maintaining and monitoring social media; and editing and assisting in production of project research newsletter.

Landscapes of Injustice is a 7-year multi-sector and interdisciplinary project to uncover and tell the history of the dispossession of Japanese Canadians to audiences across Canada and beyond. The project will result in a traveling museum exhibit, teaching materials for elementary and secondary school classes, educational websites, scholarly and popular publications, and public presentations across the country.

The topic is a timely one, offering an opportunity to those new to Canada to learn about/from this chapter in our history to further develop their skills and interest in social justice. The project, in turn, may learn from seeing this history from a newer perspective.
