

2022/2023 WORK STUDY PROGRAM

JOB POSTING

JOB TITLE: HUMS4 – Photographer

EMPLOYEE GROUP: CUPE

DEPARTMENT NAME: Humanities

CONTACT NAME: Philip Cox

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Faculty of Humanities seeks a qualified student to assist the Office of Communications with the production of high-quality photographic content for Faculty and university channels.

The successful candidate will add a student's perspective to the communications team by documenting student, staff and faculty life and events on campus. Sample assignments may include event photography, portraiture or the creation of visual content for social media, but we will develop your specific projects together according to your strengths and interests.

Videography is also an option within this role.

It is not necessary to own your own equipment for this position.

Miscellaneous support for the Associate Dean Academic, Associate Dean Research, and/or our academic departments may also be required.

Tasks may include, but are not limited to:

- On-campus event photography
- Student, staff and faculty portraiture
- Developing visual content for social media or campus digicasters
- Brainstorming new initiatives and special projects when time permits

We encourage applications from Indigenous peoples, people with disabilities, racialized groups and people with intersectional identities.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- No professional experience is required; creativity, attention to detail and professionalism is a must
- Strong photography skills are a must
- Ability to independently create compelling photographic content, from concept to completion, is a must
- Videography skills are an asset
- Experience with graphic design and/or copy writing is an asset

APPLICANTS MUST BE ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE WORK STUDY PROGRAM
