JOB POSTING

JOB TITLE: LAWF13 – Legal Research Assistant
Transsystemic Business Associations;
Pedagogical Blogging

DEPARTMENT NAME: Faculty of Law

CONTACT NAME: Rebecca Johnson

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Research assistance on two projects: one relating to the gathering and development of materials for a transsystemic business associations course; the other involving design and updating of two social media blog spaces focused on legal pedagogies (in both cases, paying attention to images and sound).

QUALIFICATIONS:

Good organizational skills, as well as skill in both legal and 'extra-legal' research. Preference given to a student who has taken Law 315: Business Associations (or who has prior business-related experience, or business-related courses in other disciplines). As well, it will be an asset to have experience or interest in Indigenous legal orders, and Indigenous economies. Familiarity with Wordpress (or other blog platforms), and an interest in audiovisual resources would be an asset for the second part of the project.
