JOB POSTING

JOB TITLE: MUSI10 - Livestream Technician

DEPARTMENT NAME: School of Music

CONTACT NAME: Linda Sheldon

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Gain behind-the-scenes, technical experience as a livestream technician for School of Music concerts and events. This hands-on role is responsible for video production for livestreamed webcasts of School of Music events held in the Phillip T. Young Recital Hall and Farquhar Auditorium, including faculty, guest, student and ensemble concerts as required and scheduled. Subject to available hours and the needs of the school, the Livestream Technician may also assist with updating and maintaining the School of Music's online audio archive. The Livestream Technician will work closely with the Recording Technician Coordinator and receive training on Phillip T. Young Recital Hall, Studio One equipment, and livestream systems and procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Must have some experience using video cameras and have an aptitude for collaborative production environments. Must be available for occasional afternoon recitals (12:00-1:30 pm, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays), some weekday evenings (7:30-10:00 pm) and weekends as scheduled. Must be reliable and punctual. Subject to available hours and the needs of the School, the Livestream Technician may also assist with video recordings as well as updating and maintaining the School of Music's online audio archive.
