JOB DESCRIPTION:
The Financial Coordinator is responsible for ensuring that the Pride Collective’s finances are kept in order and balanced, and reports are made readily available for collective members and the UVSS executives. Specifically, the Financial Coordinator will be responsible for:

- Maintaining financial records, including detailed records of all transactions (cheque requisitions).
- Communicating with other Coordinators who regularly deal with UVic Pride’s finances.
- Researching and applying for grants and other opportunities for funding.
- Working with and managing a list of fundraising volunteers to assist with grant writing, fundraising events, and other fundraising opportunities.
- Creating semesterly budgets (with the assistance of other collective members) to be approved at collective meetings once per semester.
- Presenting reports on the current budget to the Collective, including spending to date and projected budget as required.
- Host budget and financial meetings to develop financial policies that align with UVic Pride’s policies and by-laws as needed.
- Fulfilling the duties above within deadlines set by the UVSS Board and Executives, as well as the UVic Pride Collective.
- Consulting with the rest of the Pride Collective and other service providers on issues regarding finances.
- Attend collective and committee meetings, as required.
- Other relevant duties as discussed with the Supervisor and agreed to by the Financial Coordinator.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Excellent organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills.
- Ability to work well both collectively and independently to achieve goals and meet deadlines.
- Ability to maintain confidentiality.
- Ability to work comfortably with computers (Mac OS X, Microsoft Office for Mac, and Google Drive).
