DEPARTMENT NAME: University of Victoria Student’s Society – Society for Students with a Disability

CONTACT NAME: Nakita Sekhon

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The Society for Students with a Disability (SSD) is an official advocacy group of the University of Victoria Students' Society (UVSS). We are run by and represent the interests of students with disabilities. We aim to raise awareness of and remove barriers, ensuring that students have access to resources and supports, and to create inclusive safer spaces where students can relax, socialize and share their experiences.

The SSD is looking for an enthusiastic and well-organized person to set up a new website as well as manage the website and social media accounts through the direction of the Office Coordinator. The Media / Marketing Coordinator will work with other staff members and the SSD Council to raise awareness of the SSD and the supports we offer. They will advertise upcoming events through our website and social media through the direction of the Office Coordinator. They will also liaise with the student society marketing teams to promote SSD activities and events campus-wide. The position can include devising creative and innovative strategies to reach out to students. In the office, they will assist students who require help in navigating SSD office equipment including adaptive technology software. They will actively participate in a wide range of SSD activities and programing. Other duties may include supporting the SSD staff and SSD Council in maintaining the SSD office and assisting clients.
