JOB TITLE: HIST 6 – RESEARCH ASSISTANT

DEPARTMENT NAME: History

CONTACT NAME: Dr. Jill Walshaw

JOB DESCRIPTION:

The successful applicant will assist Dr. Walshaw in locating, listing, and/or analyzing primary and secondary sources related to a five-year project on counterfeiting in 17th and 18th-century France. The research assistant will gain experience using Zotero, interlibrary loaning procedures, and a variety of online library catalogues and search engines, and will learn skills that will be applicable to his or her own research projects.

QUALIFICATIONS:

This position requires a strong interest in, and aptitude for, historical research. Applicants should have completed at least 5 history courses and maintained a B+ or better average in history. This position also requires a reading knowledge of French. If you are interested in the position, and qualified in all other respects but not sure if your French level is adequate, please contact Dr Walshaw to arrange a meeting and discuss prior to submitting your application.
