University of Victoria Youth in Care Tuition Award

The UVic Youth in Care Tuition Award and Tuition Waivers are offered to assist students who are former BC Youth in Care, as defined by the Child, Family and Community Service Act. The award covers actual tuition costs and mandatory fees for the terms required for completion of a first undergraduate degree. Eligible applicants may also receive funding to assist with the costs of books, supplies and living expenses.

Who is eligible?

- Students who have received care in the Province of British Columbia from the Ministry of Children and Family Development or a Delegated Aboriginal Agency (DAA) through the Child, Family and Community Service Act for a minimum of twelve months (consecutive or accumulated) in any, or a combination of, the categories as outlined below in the consent form.

- Students who have been formerly in care in BC for a total of 12 months or more (consecutive or accumulated) and are 19 years of age or older

- Students who are offered admission to the University of Victoria for the upcoming term of study and are registered in their first undergraduate degree program.

- Students who register and maintain enrolment in full-time studies, 60% of a full-time course load per term (4.5 units per term, 3.0 units per term for students with a permanent disability) and have attained a sessional grade point average of at least 2.0 in the previous two terms of funded study.

- Students who demonstrate financial need.

If applicants are not sure whether they meet any of the above criteria, they should contact their former social worker, any Ministry of Children and Family Development office or any delegated Aboriginal agency for clarification.

Upon student consent, the University will verify each student’s eligibility with the Ministry of Child and Family Development or a delegated Aboriginal Child and Family Services agency. If approved, you will be contacted by the University of Victoria to confirm your eligibility and details of funding. The University of Victoria reserves the right to change criteria based on funding availability.

Please compete the application and return it to Student Awards and Financial Aid by email at awards@uvic.ca or in person to:
