Arc of Washington Trust Fund

The Arc of Washington Trust Fund was established in 1950 to provide funds for research into intellectual and other developmental disabilities. The Trust Fund is administered by a Board of Administrative Trustees. The purpose of the Arc Trust is to promote research on the causes, prevention and treatment of intellectual and other developmental disabilities and their personal, social and legal consequences. The Trust Fund also provides student stipends with the hope that this will allow colleges and universities to attract and retain students interested in working in the field as researchers, teachers or practitioners.

Research Grants:

Most successful applicants have been affiliated with research universities and have addressed educational, medical or psychological issues, but the Arc welcomes innovative proposals from any applicant on any topic related to its purposes. Grantees must live or work in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Alaska or British Columbia.

Letters of intent explaining the nature of the proposal and how it relates to the Trust's purposes, with an estimate of the amount of support required (maximum of $10,000) may be submitted no later than August 15 of each year. Researchers will be notified by August 25 as to whether or not the Trust Board requests a formal grant proposal.

Association of Canadian Universities for Northern Studies (ACUNS/AUCEN)

The Canadian Northern Studies Trust (CNST) is the student awards program of the Association of Canadian Universities for Northern Studies (ACUNS). It was established in 1982 to further the Association's mandate to advance knowledge and understanding of Canada's North by offering student awards for exceptional northern-based research. The purpose of the CNST is to foster scholars and scientists with northern experience and at the same time to enhance educational opportunities available for northern residents to obtain post-secondary education at Canadian colleges and universities.

The following awards are offered:

1. CNST Scholarship $10,000
2. Canadian Polar Commission Scholarship $10,000

3. The W. Garfield Weston Award for Northern Studies (Doctoral) 10 x $50,000
4. The W. Garfield Weston Award for Northern Studies (Masters) 10 x $15,000
5. Northern Resident Scholarship (graduate) 4x $10,000
6. Northern Resident Award (undergraduate) 8x $5,000
7. Caribou Research and Management Award $1,500 - $5,000
8. Arctic Co-operatives Award $2,500
9. Research Support Opportunity in Arctic Environmental Studies
10. The W. Garfield Weston Postdoctoral Fellowship in Northern Research 3 x $50,000 + up to $10,000 in travel/conference expenses

To be eligible for a CNST award you must be:

- Canadian citizen or permanent resident
- Enrolled in full time post-secondary education at a recognized Canadian University or College
- For the majority of the awards, you must have an aspect of northern or circumpolar fieldwork included as part of your research that is conducted within the term of your award. (ACUNS defines “northern” Canada as on or north of the line indicated on our Northern Boundary Map. To view the map, please consult our website.

Additional, award-specific requirements are included in award guidelines. The awards and amounts offered may change depending on availability.

EU-Canada Young Journalist Award

The EU-Canada Young Journalist Award was created in 2001 to recognize outstanding journalistic potential among Canadian students. Each year, three students are selected to participate in a one-week study tour of various EU institutions and the Canadian Mission to the EU in Brussels. Canadian students are invited to submit a composition on a current issue facing the European Union or EU-Canada relations by Friday, 31 January 2014. Compositions should be in the form of a piece that could be published or broadcast in the Canadian media.

Eligibility:

In order to be eligible, students must be:

- Enrolled in a Canadian university or other higher education establishment; and
- Canadian citizen or permanent resident.

How to apply:

Applicants are invited to make a submission focusing on a current issue facing the European Union or EU-Canada relations. In terms of format, the work may be either written (a news story of maximum 1000 words) or audiovisual (a report of up to 90 seconds duration).

Students are encouraged to prepare their entries as if they were intended to be published in Canada in a newspaper or magazine, or broadcast on TV or radio. Submissions should be prepared with a Canadian audience in mind. The jury will pay particular attention to journalistic qualities and potential, including rigorous research and factual accuracy.

The closing date for applications is Friday, January 31, 2014 (postmark). In addition to the abovementioned composition (in either English or French), applications must comprise:

1. The student's résumé (curriculum vitae).
2. A letter of motivation clearly outlining the reasons for applying and the anticipated benefits to be derived from participation in the study trip, with particular reference to the student's future career objectives.
3. Official administrative document issued by the university or college, verifying student status and enrolment.
4. Letter of reference.
5. Proof of Canadian citizenship or permanent resident status.

Please note that incomplete applications, i.e. applications not containing a journalistic composition accompanied by ALL FIVE of the above documents, will not be considered.

Applications are to be sent by e-mail to Melina.Chimal-Pilon@eeas.europa.eu OR by mail to:

Delegation of the European Union to Canada
Ms. Mélina Chimal Pilon
Ref.: EU-Canada Young Journalist Award
150 Metcalfe Street, Suite 1900
Ottawa, Ontario K2P 1P1

For audio-visual entries (CD, DVD, audio or video cassette), please submit six copies by mail with the application, so that they can be distributed to the members of the jury.

Foundation to Commemorate Chinese Railroad Workers in Canada

The Foundation to Commemorate the Chinese Railroad Workers in Canada (FCCRWC) is a registered charitable organization. The goals of the foundation include promoting the understanding and awareness of the contribution to Canada by the Chinese Railroad Workers who participated in the construction of the first transcontinental railway (the CPR) that united Canada geographically and politically; promoting the awareness of the government's legislation of unjust Immigration Acts against the Chinese pioneers and their families; establishing scholarships; and sponsoring other Canadian charitable organizations to promote Chinese Canadian History.

The Foundation would like to encourage a deeper understanding of Chinese Canadian history by offering a cash award to the top three essays received annually for this scholarship contest.

To Enter

Please submit an essay (500-1000 words) about the history of Chinese people in Canada and their contributions to the construction of the railroad and to this country.

Submission should be sent as an attachment in Microsoft Word or PDF format by email to fccrwc@gmail.com. Please include your full name, email contact information, name of the school and program you will be enrolled in.

Prizes

Three (3) Prizes will be awarded:

1st Prize: $500

2nd Prize: $300

Isabel Loucks Foster Public Health Bursary Fund

The Isabel Loucks Foster Public Health Bursary fund has been set up to provide bursary funding for public health post-graduate studies.

The funds are managed by the Vancouver Foundation and the Bursary funds will be released to a successful applicant(s) annually on the recommendation of the Health Officers' Council. The Health Officers' Council is comprised of the Medical Health Officers and public health physicians of British Columbia.

Bursaries are available in an amount up to $3000 on a one-time-only basis.

Eligibility:

Full-time students engaged in post-graduate study in a field of Public/Community Health Practice within an applicable discipline (e.g. nurses, nutritionists, environmental health officers, physicians, etc.).

- Persons must be ordinarily resident in B.C.
- Persons must have demonstrated excellence in performance and leadership ability.
- Studies may be undertaken at any suitable education institution either within or outside British Columbia.

Conditions:

Candidates must demonstrate satisfactory enrolment and standing in a course of studies or acceptance into a program. Candidates must acknowledge acceptance of the bursary by letter to the Chair of the Health Officer's Council. It is suggested that bursary recipients consider a future donation to the bursary fund in support of the future education needs of those who will follow them.

Applications, accompanied by a current C.V.; proof of acceptance or enrolment in an appropriate program; future goals and intentions within public/community health; and any other information you feel relevant to the selection committee, be forwarded to the Chair, Health Officers' Council, by a set date in early September of the year in which the bursary is required. Successful candidates will be notified by October 31st. The entire amount of the award will be forwarded to successful candidates prior to the commencement of the next semester.

Application: Completed documentation is to be submitted by September 5, 2014 to:

Killam Fellowships Program

The Killam Fellowships Program provides an opportunity for exceptional undergraduate students from universities in Canada to spend either one semester or a full academic year as an exchange student in the United States. Students may participate in the program either as a direct exchange student (registering at the host university, paying their home fees, and attending the host university as an exchange visitor) or a self-paced visiting student (registering at the host university and paying host tuition fees). Canadian applicants interested in the direct exchange program must be registered at one of the participating Canadian universities and be planning to visit one of the participating American universities.

The Killam Fellowships Program provides a cash award of $5,000 USD per semester ($10,000 for the full academic year), an all-expense paid three day orientation in Ottawa, and a three day all-expense paid seminar in Washington. In addition, the Foundation provides all Killam Fellows with a health insurance allowance of $500 USD. All Killam Fellows are also eligible to apply for a mobility (in-country travel) grant in the amount not to exceed $800 USD. The idea of the mobility initiative is to allow students to undertake an educational field trip, providing the Fellows with the opportunity to gain a more comprehensive understanding of the culture of the United States.

Eligibility Requirements

In order to be considered for a Killam Fellowship to study in the United States, students must meet the following requirements at the time of application. The student must be:

- a Canadian citizen,
- a full-time undergraduate student in good standing at a Canadian degree-granting institution,
- expected to receive an undergraduate degree in the Spring of 2014 or beyond,
- meet the eligibility requirements and regulations of the home university,
- proficient in English,
- in possession of a superior academic record, and
- able to complete all steps of the application process prior to the published deadlines.

Please note that candidates of the direct exchange program must be nominated by their home university.

Ontario March of Dimes

Discover the new and growing profession of Conductive Education (CE), a holistic approach to learning for children and adults with motor disorders.

The March of Dimes Canada Conductive Education® Award provides recipients with $10,000 annually (to a maximum of $30,000) to complete either:

- a three-year program towards a BA (Hons) Conductive Education with a Qualified Conductor Status (QCS) certification at the University of Wolverhampton in Birmingham, United Kingdom; or
- a five-year program towards a POHI (Physically and Otherwise Health Impaired) undergraduate program focusing on Conductive Education at Aquinas College in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The March of Dimes award covers approximately two-thirds of the total tuition fees required to become a conductor.

All award applicants must be a Canadian resident or citizen. In addition, they must be either graduating from, or already a graduate of, a recognized high school program, OR either currently enrolled in, or already a graduate of, a recognized college or university program.

Applicants must complete a one-page essay explaining their interest in becoming a Conductor. References and transcripts will be required.

Applicants are encouraged to apply to the University of Wolverhampton or Aquinas College concurrently with the award application. Recipients of the March of Dimes Conductive Education award will be notified after confirmation of acceptance to the university.

Award recipients are required to complete a two-year, post-graduate commitment to March of Dimes, after which individuals are free to explore other placement options. Student conductors are also required to fulfill a paid placement in a Conductive Education® summer program in Canada, which provides excellent opportunities for Canadian participants to return home and gain valuable work experience.

Dr. Roy Watson Traffic Safety Award

The UVic Centre for Youth and Society, with the CRD Traffic Safety Commission, has just opened submissions for the Dr. Roy Watson Traffic Safety Award. Submissions may consist of either a social media entry or an essay related to the theme of distracted driving. Winning submissions will be awarded two scholarships totaling $2500.

Submission guidelines:

- 1) All entrants must be registered students at the University of Victoria, in a program leading to a graduate or undergraduate degree.
- 2) The theme of the contest is “Distracted Driving.”
- 3) Candidates may enter in only one of two categories: A) social media, or B) essay. For social media entries, team submissions are allowed.
- 4)
 - a) Entrants in the social media category must submit a brief video clip (i.e., YouTube) or electronic poster (i.e., able to upload to Facebook) offering a safety-oriented message with a focus on distracted driving.
 - b) Essay entrants must write an original essay, a maximum of 2000 words in length, proposing one or more programs and/or policy changes that they believe would contribute to a reduction in distracted driving. Entries should reflect current “best practices” knowledge regarding the causes of crashes and effectiveness of program approaches.
- 5) Entries should acknowledge the CRD Traffic Safety Commission and the UVic Centre for Youth and Society.
- 6) Two scholarships worth a total of $2500 will be awarded. The judges will decide whether the best entrants are one essay and one social media entry; two essays; or two social media entries. The top entry will receive $1500 and the second place will receive $1000. In team submissions, the prize money will be awarded to the team and it is up to the team to distribute the winnings amongst their team. The judges’ decision is final.
- 7) All entries become property of the Capital Regional District Traffic Safety Commission, and may be used in Commission programs without further permissions being granted.
- 8) Essays and social media entries should be emailed as a Word document attachment to cys@uvic.ca. Social media entries may be submitted via email with subject line 2013 Roy Watson Entry and contain a link to your entry.

Ruth Gardiner Award

As a result of a bequest by the late Ruth A. Gardiner, an annual award is presented to one or more students to undertake a research project at the Aberdeen, Glengarry, Mt. Tolmie, Priory and Heritage Woods care facilities.

The award is intended to afford students the opportunity to gain practical experience in conducting research concerning the improvement of care for persons with long term disability in the clinical environment of these hospitals.

This award is intended as a continuance of that support by providing eligible graduate students with research/project funding under the direction of the Greater Victoria Eldercare Foundation in relation to improving the care of persons with long term disability.

The Foundation will endeavor to provide a wide variety of practical experience in research within the field of gerontology. In assessing the applications, the committee will consider the merits of the proposal and the qualifications of the applicant.

Eligibility & Expectations:

1. Applicants must be registered as a graduate student in educational programs offered by the Faculty of Education, the Department of Psychology and the Schools of Health Information Science, Nursing, Public Administration or Social Work. Students registered in the Island Medical Program may also apply.
2. Applicants must provide a project proposal (up to five pages) that has been approved by their academic supervisor.
3. Where the project involves the study of human subjects, a copy of the certificate confirming that the project has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Board must be included with the application package. Applicants are advised to apply to this joint UVic/VIHA sub-committee and to use the forms developed by this sub-committee for their ethics application (<http://www.research.uvic.ca/forms/index.htm#HREC>).
4. Successful applicants must be willing to undertake a research project within the clinical environment of the Aberdeen, Glengarry, Mt. Tolmie, Priory or Heritage Woods Hospitals. Within those hospitals, the project may be conducted in any department that can provide the environment and resources necessary to complete the project.
5. Successful applications are required to provide a written progress report midway through the project. Guidelines for the progress report are available as part of the application package.

Funding

A grant, not exceeding the amount of $5000, will be awarded to the recipient(s) to cover research- or project-related costs.

Stacey Levitt Memorial Award

The Stacey Levitt Memorial Award was created in memory and celebration of Stacey's life by her family through Parachute. This annual student award encourages Canadian youth to embody Stacey's qualities and ideals and Parachute's overarching goal of a long life lived to the fullest, while maintaining an approach that is rooted in risk management and injury prevention.

The Levitt family will award the selected recipient $2500 in funding to help them live their life to the fullest. The award could be put towards an educational endeavour, engagement in sports, or investment in a travel experience – all pursuits that would have resonated with Stacey. Award recipients are expected to write a reflection on the impact of the funding on their life, due within one year of the distribution of funds.

Open to all students currently attending a Canadian secondary school; applicants must complete an application package including:

1. A completed Application Form
2. A letter of recommendation from an individual with first-hand knowledge of the applicant's involvement in their school or community.
3. A short essay (2 pages - font size 12) addressing the following questions:
 - a. How do you demonstrate a long life lived to the fullest?
 - b. How are you helping others to achieve this?
 - c. How do you demonstrate Parachute's brand values of nobility, courage, and inclusivity?
 - d. If successful, how do you intend to use the funding provided by the Stacey Levitt Memorial Award?

The application package will be reviewed by the Parachute Youth Advisory Team, a group of youth dedicated to Parachute's values and injury prevention. Parachute staff will interview the top five applicants, with recommendations forwarded to the Levitt family for final selection.
