

CRC TALKS

PALLIATIVE
APPROACHES TO CARE IN AGING AND COMMUNITY HEALTH

Shaun Peter Qureshi, MD

AUTONOMY, THE INTERNET, AND END-OF- LIFE:

How people facing death and bereavement resist the medicalisation of dying and grief through online forums

OCT 11, 2023

1:30-2:30 pm PST

Virtual event

Scan for the event link

Shaun Peter Qureshi MBChB, MD, MRCP(UK), MRCP Specialty Certificate Palliative Medicine is a Scottish palliative care physician, educator, and researcher. He is a research fellow at the Centre for the Art of Dying Well, St Mary's University, London. As a UK Churchill Fellow, Shaun is working towards improved palliative care for marginalised patient groups in the UK through researching equitable models of palliative care for structurally vulnerable patients.

Questions? Email us at:

palliative_approaches@uvic.ca

University of Victoria

Support for these events provided by Dr. Stajduhar and the Canada Research Chairs Program, the UVic Institute on Aging & Lifelong Health and the UVic School of Nursing.