

2025 Brain Art Contest & Showcase Entry Form

Theme: Community and Mental Health

Name of Artist: _____

Title of Submission: _____

Medium Used: _____

Email: _____ Phone #: _____

Artist Statement:

In a few sentences, describe how the piece was inspired by the theme "Community and Mental Health".

Click here to enter text.

Please check which age category you fit in:

- ☐ Young Creators (12 years old & under)
- ☐ Teen & Youth Visions (13 – 24 years old)
- ☐ Adult Reflections (25+ years old)

Optional: Check the following to

- ☐ donate art to IALH for display purposes in R Hut after showcase day.

Submit this form with your art by 4pm on June 16 via:

1. email to IALHResearch@uvic.ca if digital (file upload or link) or
2. drop-off at IALH, R Hut (off McKenzie Ave), 3800 Finnerty Rd. on weekdays between 9am - 4pm.

Disclaimer: By submitting an entry to the Institute on Aging and Lifelong Health's 2025 Brain Art Contest & Showcase, you are granting the Institute permission to: a) showcase your art in a public space on campus on showcase day and a digitized copy online after showcase day, and b) include information regarding the submission (artist name, title of submission, artist statement, and age category) on IALH's website and social media channels. IALH cannot be responsible for damage or theft of submissions while on display.

Institute on Aging & Lifelong Health

Hosted by UVic's Institute on Aging & Lifelong Health (IALH), the CARING Dementia Collaborative, and the Mental Health Research Cluster.