Freya Milne Memorial Fund

Overview and Application 2026-2027

Description

The purpose of the Freya Milne Memorial Fund is to provide support to graduate students whose research contributes to youth well-being.

Preference will be given to students who have overcome adversity in their own lives to pursue their education at the University of Victoria. This may include, but is not limited to, perseverance and courage in the face of obstacles, learning or physical disabilities, economic stresses, balancing education with employment, family responsibilities, or health issues.

Eligibility

- Applicants must be full-time graduate students with a minimum GPA of 7.0
- Both master's and doctoral students are eligible to apply.
- Students may be at any stage in their studies but must be returning to UVic for 2026-2027.
- Applicants must be conducting research on youth well-being.
- Students may be studying in any faculty, department, school/division or program at UVic.
- Applicants must be formally affiliated with the Institute on Aging and Lifelong Health (IALH) by the application deadline. Applicants may apply to become an IALH Student Affiliate within the application submission period. For more information, contact IALHResearch@uvic.ca.

Funding

Up to two awards with a combined value of $3,000.

Conditions

The name, degree, year, and department of the successful applicant(s) will be made public through IALH communication channels (e.g., newsletters, website, social media platforms, etc.). The successful applicant(s) may be asked to present their proposed research project at one or more events hosted by IALH during the 2026-2027 and/or 2027-2028 academic years.

Selection of Recipient(s)

Applications will be reviewed by a three- to five- member Adjudication Committee made up of IALH administrators and Research Fellows who do not supervise any Freya Milne award applicants.

As part of the review process, the committee will consider the applicant's research project as well as their research interests, previous work, and volunteer experiences related to youth.
