

Stories from the Field

Internship Experiences in Bangladesh and the Philippines

Come hear about upcoming funded internship placements in Bangladesh, India, Malaysia, Nepal and Japan, and talk to past interns about their experiences.

Tuesday, February 3, 2015

12:30 – 1:30 pm

David Strong Building, Room C118

Join recently returned CAPI interns, Kip Jorgensen and Elsie Daoust to hear about their internship experiences in Bangladesh and the Philippines. They will share both personal stories and professional experiences working with migrant rights organizations and research institutions.

University of Victoria

Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives

Part of International Development Week – see www.uvic.ca/international for the full schedule of events