Indigenous Graduate Peer Mentor

The Indigenous Mentorship of the Pacific Northwest (IMN-PN) is looking for a graduate student to be an active member in the IMN-PN at UVic. Working closely with the IMN-PN Network Coordinator, the Peer Mentor will, at their home university:

- Promote the IMN-PN among Indigenous undergraduate and graduate students
- Help Indigenous students connect with the IMN-PN
- Support the preparation and distribution of materials for recruitment, resource sharing and events (e.g., posters, short video clips, event posts on Facebook & Twitter)
- Help facilitate IMN-PN events

Term of Employment: 10 hours per month from January 1, 2019 to April 15, 2019

Hourly Wage: $25.53

Qualifications:

- Dependable, strong work ethic and able to meet deadlines – very important
- Deep understanding of Indigenous students’ post-secondary experiences and needs
- Interest in Indigenous research
- Outgoing personality – enjoys working with people
- Skilled in Word, Adobe, Facebook and Twitter (assets)

If you are interested, please submit a resume or CV and brief cover letter telling about your interest in the position and how it fits with your learning goals to:

Maria Shallard, Network Coordinator: imnpn@uvic.ca

Applicants who self-identify as Indigenous are especially encouraged to apply and, where all other considerations are equal, priority will be given to Indigenous applicants.
