

University
of Victoria

PROTEST, US POLITICS AND THE WAR IN GAZA

In a year of atrocity and war in Israel, Gaza, and the West Bank, protest and activism rocked the University of Victoria. On the eve of the US elections, Peter Beinart, a leading journalist of the Jewish American left, and Neilesh Bose, UVic, discuss the causes and consequences of protest for US politics, the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions movement, freedom of speech, and the future of the region.

Join us for a nuanced discussion on one of today's most critical geopolitical issues.

29 OCT 2024 | 7:00 - 8:30 PM

REGISTRATION REQUIRED FOR IN-PERSON ATTENDANCE

Register Here

or

Livestream

Peter Beinart is Professor of Journalism and Political Science at the City University of New York. He is Editor-at-Large of Jewish Currents, a frequent contributor to MSNBC, and a fellow at the Foundation for Middle East Peace. His books include The Crisis of Zionism.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
UVIC.CA/CSRS/EVENTS

University
of Victoria

| Humanities | History | Writing | English | Law | Centre for Global Studies | Centre for Studies in Religion & Society