The Christian Left and Canadian Politics

Sunday, March 17th
1:30-3:00 pm

First Metropolitan United Church
932 Balmoral Rd, Victoria

Featuring The Hon. Bill Blaikie
in conversation with Lisa Helps, Patricia Lane, Alex Nelson, Mary Louise Meadow and Paul Bramadat

In this election year, how might Christians (and non-Christians) interested in progressive politics act and think? Should activists prioritize certain dire global situations (e.g., climate change), other more local challenges (e.g., homelessness), or international crises (e.g., refugees in Europe)? Do progressive Christians and like-minded members of other communities have a special role to play in contemporary Canadian politics?

Join us for this open conversation with one of Canada’s senior political thinkers.

In collaboration with the John Albert Hall Lecture Series
