The Centre for Global Studies is pleased to offer associate fellowship opportunities from qualified researchers, professionals, and community members interested in our dynamic group of interdisciplinary scholars.

Purpose: The purpose of the associate fellowship is to create linkages with the broader scholarly community through mentorship opportunities, creating intellectual interdisciplinary capacity with the centre fellows/projects as well as community linkages in the area of global studies.

Topics: The CFGS promotes critical citizenship in a complex and rapidly changing global environment including the advancement and understanding of major global issues by civil society, the private sector, governments, and international institutions. These topics may included, but are not limited to: global governance, international environmental challenges, ecological and social justice issues, and culture and identity. Applications from all disciplinary backgrounds are welcome.

Value: The Associate Program aims to be mutually beneficial to both the CFGS and the Associate. Associates are an important part of the CFGS intellectual community through enhanced opportunities for research networking, mentorship, and exchange. Through participation in the Centre's wide range of scholarly and social activities, Associate Fellows will help shape the development of the CFGS community. In addition, Associate Fellows will have access to the University of Victoria library, CFGS boardroom (C179), stationary, scanner, and photocopier.
