

GLOBAL TALKS SERIES

Presented by the Centre for Global Studies

Second Anniversary of the Arab Uprisings

Free Public Seminar
February 27, 2013 | 2:30-4:30 pm |
Hickman Building (HHB) - Room 116

DESCRIPTION: How can we make sense of the tumultuous events currently shaking and reshaping the Arab World?

Moderated by Andrew Rippin, Department of History, a group of UVic scholars with in-depth knowledge and expertise in the region will present their thoughts on this question followed by an open discussion.

DISCUSSANTS INCLUDE:

Gregory Blue,
Dept. of History

Peyman Vahabzadeh,
Dept. of Sociology

Martin Bunton,
Dept. of History

Andrew Wender,
Depts. of History &
Political Science

Jason Colby,
Dept. of History

Hanny Hilmy,
INTD Doctoral Candidate

Miriam Mueller,
Doctoral Candidate
CFGS Graduate Student Fellow

