Roy Watson Traffic Safety Award

2022-2023 Student Awards

The Award

This award will support students who are conducting research on the topic of traffic safety and youth (12 to 30 years of age). It was established in the memory of Dr. Roy Watson and is administrated by the UVic Centre for Youth and Society in coordination with the Capital Regional District Traffic Safety Commission.

Eligibility

Applicants must be graduate or undergraduate students at the University of Victoria. Preference will be given to students who are Student Affiliate members of the Centre for Youth and Society.

Value

Recipients will be awarded $1,000 for conducting research on youth traffic safety. Recipients are also offered on-campus work space in University House 3 with access to a mailbox, scanner and photocopier services (for the duration of the project), and opportunities to participate in CFYS social and academic events.

Submission Deadline

Review of applications will begin on Monday March 20th, 2023 (4:00pm).
